38th Annual Oak Hill Christmas Parade

December 12, 2026 at 2:00pm

The 2026 Oak Hill Christmas Parade presented by The City of Oak Hill will be on Saturday, December 12th begins at 2:00pm. The theme this year is "The Traditions of Christmas". Please take time to read all of the rules and share them with your group. To enter the parade, fill out the application at the bottom or email to meyert@oakhillfl.gov and submit it by December 4, 2026.

RULES FOR THE PARADE

1. Floats will be judged on appearance, originality and theme.
2. Categories to be judged are: Best of Show, Best Float (1st, 2nd & 3rd), Most Original, and Best Children's Float.
3. All parade vehicles and vehicles pulling floats should be clean and are required to be decorated. Only decorated vehicles will be allowed to enter this parade.
4. Please do not distribute flyers, coupons, magazines, etc. They usually end up on the ground. If you provide candy, it is recommended that people walk with your float to hand candy directly rather then throwing it in the road. DRIVERS, watch for children picking up candy.
5. There is only ONE SANTA in the parade. You may not have anyone dressed in a Santa suit or have any other kind of Santa.
6. The staging area will be at Bibleway Church 281 Flamingo Rd Oak Hill, FL 32759.
7. There will be no stopping to perform unless the entire parade stops.
8. All float entries must be in position for PARADE START no later than 1:30pm.
9. Parade awards will be presented at the January 8th Commission Meeting.
10. Santa will be Mary DeWees Park immediately after parade for the kids to meet.
