1. Introduction

The Promotion of Access to Information Act, No. 2 of 2000 (PAIA), gives effect to the constitutional right of all, in terms of section 32 of the Bill of Rights contained in the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa 108 of 1996 ("Constitution"), to access any information held by the state and any information that another person has and that is required for the exercise/protection of any rights.

Promoting the Promotion of Access to Information Act (PAIA) and the Protection of Personal Information Act (POPIA) can be confusing. They can be seen as "information" laws and were both enacted on 1 July 2021, enforced by the same Information Regulator. PAIA is an "Access" law, all about access to Information, and POPIA is a "Privacy" law, all about the privacy of personal information. They shouldn't be seen as competing; instead, both are there to help ensure that data is managed correctly.

2. Purpose of the PAIA manual

Under Section 51 of the PAIA, all private bodies are required to compile an Information Manual (the "PAIA Manual"), which is also helpful to the public.

- 2.1. Check the categories of records held by a business that are available without requiring a formal PAIA request.
- 2.2. Understand how to request access to a Business record by describing the subjects on which a Business holds records and the categories of documents held on each topic.
- 2.3. The description of a business's records is available under any other legislation.
- 2.4. Access all the relevant contact details of the Information Officer and Deputy Information Officer, who will assist the public with the records they intend to access.
- 2.5. Read the guide's description of how to use PAIA, as updated by the Regulator, and how to obtain access to it.
- 2.6. know if a business will process personal information, what the purpose of processing personal information is, and what the description of the categories of data subjects and the information or categories of information relating thereto is.
- 2.7. Know the description of the categories of data subjects and the information or categories relating thereto.
- 2.8. Know the recipients or categories of recipients to whom the personal information may be supplied.
- 2.9. know if a Business has planned to transfer or process personal information outside the Republic of South Africa, and the recipients or categories of recipients to whom the personal information may be supplied; and
- 2.10. Know whether a Business has appropriate security measures to ensure the confidentiality, integrity, and availability of the personal information to be processed.
- 2.11. The forms as set out by the Regulator could be found on their website (20250906): <https://info regulator.org.za/paia/>

7.5. General description of Information Security Measures to be implemented by the responsible party to ensure the confidentiality, integrity and availability of the information.

We restrict, secure, and control all our information against unauthorised access, interference, modification, damage, loss, or destruction, whether physical or electronic.

We will do a safety and security risk assessment from time to time to ensure we keep up with the requirements.

I am the only staff member and provide training to be compliant with the POPI Act on an ongoing basis.

We do everything we can to prevent personal information from falling into unauthorised hands.

My business premises, where records are kept, must remain protected by access control.

My laptop, phones and computer network are protected by passwords which I change regularly.

I am using Outlook 365, which complies with industry-standard security safeguards and meets the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), which is standard in the European Union. I have firewalls and use Kaspersky Internet Security.

I am a small business working on my own. Personal information can only be accessed or modified by me.

If there were a data breach, I would determine the source, neutralise it and prevent the recurrence of such a data breach.

When I utilise an external operator, I will, through a written contract between my business and the operator, ensure that the operator establishes and maintains the required security measures.

The operator must advise immediately if there is the possibility that personal data has been accessed or acquired by any unauthorised person.

The Data Subject will be advised via e-mail or in writing immediately if it is suspected that unauthorised persons have accessed their personal information. Sufficient information will be provided to allow the data subjects to put measures in place to safeguard themselves against potential consequences of the security compromise. The Information Regulator will be informed in the event of a security breach where personal information could be compromised. It is my duty to ensure this process is followed.
