

The Company

Tamarack Valley Energy Ltd. (“Tamarack”) is an oil and gas exploration and production company committed to creating long-term value for its shareholders through sustainable free funds flow generation, financial stability, and the return of capital. The Company has an extensive inventory of low-risk, oil development drilling locations focused primarily on the Clearwater and Charlie Lake plays in Alberta. Operating as a responsible corporate citizen is a key focus to ensure we deliver on our environmental, social and governance (ESG) commitments and goals.

Role Description

Tamarack is seeking an Analyst in Corporate Planning / Finance to assist in the successful development of the Company. The individual would be a key member of the Corporate Planning team and report to the Sr. Analyst, Corporate Planning & Risk Management, this role would focus on supporting all aspects of Corporate Planning, Risk Management, and Investor Relations. The successful candidate would also be involved in the preparation of materials for shareholders, prospective investors, executives, and the board of directors.

Key Responsibilities

Responsibilities will include, but are not limited to, the following areas:

- Reporting to the Sr. Analyst, Corporate Planning & Risk Management, the Analyst will support with all aspects of Corporate Planning, Risk Management, and Investor Relations;
- Assist in financial analysis, capital budgeting / forecast and benchmarking;
- Assist in managing databases for use by the Corporate Planning group and/or management to better understand the competitive landscape of the North American energy industry;
- Maintaining & updating commodity price decks for use in the corporate model and by other groups in the Company;
- Assist in the development and maintenance of corporate communications including investor presentations, board presentations, website materials and updating internal reports relevant to investor relations and corporate messaging;
- Ad hoc management reporting projects and dashboards.

Skills and Experience

Specific skills and experience for this individual would include:

- Bachelor’s Degree in Finance, Economics, Mathematics or Engineering;
- Enrollment, or an interest in the CFA/CPA program, and/or previous capital markets or corporate finance experience would be an asset;
- Proficiency in data analysis and interpretation;
- Proficiency with Microsoft Excel, PowerPoint, and Word;
- Knowledge of Microsoft Power BI would be an asset;
- Excellent communication skills – both written and verbal;
- A strong attention to detail and ability to prioritize deliverables to meet tight deadlines; and,

- Positive attitude with the ability to collaborate across disciplines in the company to support the integrated decision-making processes.

Compensation

Tamarack provides employees a competitive total rewards package that includes base salary, short-term incentives (cash bonuses), long-term incentives (stock-based compensation), employee share purchase plan, group benefits plan, health and wellness spending account, and employee and family assistance program.

Application

To apply for the Investor Relations Analyst Role, please forward a cover letter and resume to HR@tamarackvalley.ca. In the subject line, please include "Investor Relations Analyst Opportunity."

We appreciate the interest of all applicants, however, only those candidates to be interviewed will be contacted.