Statement of intent

At Connect Academy Trust, we understand that good behaviour and discipline is essential for promoting a high-quality education.

Amongst other disciplinary sanctions, the school recognises that suspensions and permanent exclusions of pupils may be necessary where there has been a serious breach, or consistent breaches, of the school's Behavioural Policy. Suspending or permanently excluding a pupil may also be required in instances where allowing the pupil to remain in school would be damaging to the education and welfare of themselves or others; in all cases, suspending or permanently excluding pupils should only be used as a means of last resort.

The school has created this policy to clearly define the legal responsibilities of the Trust Board, headteacher, governing body and LA when responding to pupil suspensions and permanent exclusions, to ensure that they are dealt with both fairly and lawfully, and in line with DfE statutory guidance.

This policy also aims to secure a pupil's right to an education despite having been suspended or permanently excluded, by ensuring that appropriate arrangements are in place.

1. Legal framework

1.1. This policy has due regard to the related statutory legislation including, but not limited to, the following:

- The Education Act 2002
- The School Discipline (Pupil Exclusions and Reviews) (England) Regulations 2012
- The Education and Inspections Act 2006
- The Education Act 1996
- The Education (Provision of Full-Time Education for Excluded Pupils) (England) Regulations 2007
- The European Convention on Human Rights (ECHR)
- The Equality Act 2010

1.2. This policy also has due regard to statutory and non-statutory guidance, including, but not limited to, the following:

- DfE (2023) 'Suspension and Permanent Exclusion from maintained schools, academies and pupil referral units in England, including pupil movement. Guidance for maintained schools, academies, and pupil referral units in England'

- DfE (2017) 'Exclusion from maintained schools, academies and pupil referral units in England'
- DfE (2016) 'Behaviour and discipline in schools'
- DfE (2015) 'Special educational needs and disability code of practice: 0 to 25 years'
- DfE (2018) 'Mental health and behaviour in schools'

1.3. This policy will be implemented in conjunction with the following school policies and procedures:

- Behavioural Policy
- Anti-Bullying Policy
- Pupil Code of Conduct
- Special Educational Needs and Disability (SEND) Policy
- Child Protection and Safeguarding Policy

2. Roles and responsibilities

2.1. The LA is responsible for:

- Having due regard to the relevant statutory guidance when carrying out its duties in relation to the education of LAC.
- Arranging suitable full-time education for any pupil of compulsory school age excluded permanently, in coordination with the school.
- Reviewing and reassessing pupils' needs in consultation with their parents where they have an EHC plan and are excluded permanently, with a view to identifying a new placement.
- Arranging for an independent review panel hearing to review the decision of the governing body not to reinstate a permanently excluded pupil where required.
- Arranging the hearing without delay at a time, date and venue convenient for all parties.
- Ensuring the independent review panel consists of three or five members as appropriate, which represent the required categories.
- Ensuring all panel members and the clerk have received training within the two years prior to the date of the review.
- If requested by parents, appointing a SEND expert to attend the panel and covering the associated costs of this appointment.

2.2. The governing body is responsible for:

- Providing information to the Secretary of State and LA about any suspensions or permanent exclusions within the last 12 months.
- Arranging suitable full-time education for any pupil of compulsory school age suspended on a fixed-term basis.
- Considering parents' representations about suspensions or permanent exclusions within 15 school days of receiving notice if the appropriate requirements are met.
- Where a suspension or permanent exclusion would result in a pupil missing a public examination or test, considering the suspension or permanent exclusion before this date.
- Considering whether it would be appropriate for a pupil to be permitted onto the school premises to sit the public examination or test.
- Arranging the representation meeting at a time and date convenient to all parties, but in compliance with the statutory time limits.
- Adhering to its responsibilities to consider the reinstatement of pupils.
- Considering the interests and circumstances of the suspended or permanently excluded pupil, including the circumstances in which they were suspended or permanently excluded, and have due regard to the interests of others at the school.
- Using the civil standard of proof (based on the 'balance of probabilities', it is more than likely that the fact is true) when establishing the facts relating to a suspension or permanent exclusion.
- Ensuring clear minutes are taken of the representation meeting.
- Noting the outcome of the representation meeting on the pupil's education record, along with copies of relevant papers for future reference.
- Notifying the pupil's parents, the headteacher and LA of its decision and the reasons for it, without delay.
- Where appropriate, informing parents of where to apply for an independent review panel.
- Informing parents of relevant sources of information.
- Ensuring a pupil's name is removed from the school admissions register, where appropriate.
- Reconvening within 10 school days to reconsider reinstatement of a pupil where directed to do so by the exclusions review panel.

2.3. The clerk to the exclusions review panel (where not appointed this is assumed by the LA) is responsible for:

- Making reasonable efforts to inform the appropriate individuals that they are entitled to:
 - Make written representations to the panel.
 - Attend the hearing and make oral representations to the panel.
 - Be represented.
- Making reasonable efforts to circulate copies of relevant papers at least five school days before the review to all parties.
- Giving all parties details of those attending and their role, once the position is clear.
- Attending the review and ensuring that minutes are produced in accordance with instructions from the panel.

2.4. The headteacher is responsible for:

- Implementing good levels of discipline to ensure all pupils can benefit from the opportunities provided by education and to minimise potential suspensions or permanent exclusions.
- Applying the civil standard of proof when establishing the facts in relation to a suspension or permanent exclusion.
- Complying with their statutory duties in relation to pupils with SEND when administering the suspension or permanent exclusion process, as outlined in the Special Educational Needs and Disability (SEND) Policy.
- Considering any contributing factors that are identified after an incident of poor behaviour has occurred, e.g. if a pupil has suffered bereavement, bullying or has a mental health issue.
- Considering the use of a multi-agency assessment for a pupil who demonstrates persistent disruptive behaviour.
- Reviewing the effectiveness of suspensions as a sanction, e.g. if a pupil has received multiple suspensions or is approaching the legal limit for suspensions in an academic year.
- Considering what extra support may be needed to identify and address the needs of individual pupils, particularly those with SEND, eligible for FSM, LAC and those from certain ethnic groups.
- Engaging effectively with parents in supporting the behaviour of pupils with additional needs.
- Determining whether a pupil will be suspended or permanently excluded on disciplinary grounds.

- Withdrawing any suspensions or permanent exclusions that have not been reviewed by the governing body, where appropriate.
- Ensuring any decision to suspend or permanently exclude is lawful, rational, reasonable, fair and proportionate.
- Complying with the requirements of the Equality Act 2010 when deciding whether to suspend or permanently exclude a pupil.
- Ensuring they have considered their legal duty of care when sending a pupil home following a suspension or permanent exclusion.
- Making the decision to suspend or permanently exclude based on the evidence available at the time, regardless of any police investigation and/or criminal proceedings.
- Notifying a pupil's parents without delay where the decision is taken to suspend or permanently exclude the pupil, including the days on which the parents must ensure the pupil is not present in a public place at any time during school hours, as well as any other necessary information statutorily required.
- Ensuring that all information provided to parents is clear and easily understood.
- Notifying the governing body and LA of their decision to suspend or permanently exclude a pupil where appropriate, as well as the pupil's home authority if required.
- Notifying the governing body once per term of any suspensions or permanent exclusions not already notified.
- Organising suitable work for suspended or permanently excluded pupils where alternative provision cannot be arranged.

3. Grounds for suspension or permanent exclusion

- 3.1. The school will only suspend or permanently exclude a pupil where it is absolutely necessary, and where all other possible disciplinary sanctions, as detailed in the school's Behaviour Policy, have failed to be successful.
- 3.2. The following examples of behaviour may underline the school's decision to suspend or permanently exclude a pupil:
 - Any incident which poses a risk to other pupils or members of staff, e.g. bringing a weapon onto the premises
 - Any incidents which breach the law
 - Persistent and severe bullying
 - Verbal and physical abuse
 - Constant disruption

- A single, serious and major incident, e.g. serious assault on another individual leading to injury
- 3.3. Pupils can be suspended on a fixed-period basis, i.e. up to 45 school days within a year, or excluded permanently. Similarly, pupils can be permanently excluded following a fixed-period suspension, where further evidence is presented.
 - 3.4. In all cases, the headteacher will decide which suspension period a pupil will be subject to, depending on what the circumstances warrant.
4. The headteacher's power to suspend or permanently exclude
 - 4.1. Only the headteacher has the power to suspend or permanently exclude a pupil from the school, and is able to decide whether this is on a fixed-period or permanent basis. All suspensions and permanent exclusions will only be issued on disciplinary grounds.
 - 4.2. In the Headteacher's absence, a Deputy or Assistant Headteacher can suspend a pupil (with the approval of the Headteacher or Trust ELT). In the Headteacher's absence, a member of the Trust ELT can permanently exclude a child, in liaison with the school SLT/staff.
 - 4.3. All permanent exclusions must be agreed with the CEO of the Trust (or another member of the Trust ELT), prior to the final decision being communicated.
 - 4.4. The headteacher is able to suspend or permanently exclude pupils from the premises where their behaviour is disruptive during lunchtime. All lunchtime suspensions will be counted as half of a school day.
 - 4.5. The headteacher is able to consider a pupil's disruptive behaviour outside of the school premises as grounds for suspension or permanent exclusion, in accordance with the school's Behaviour Policy.
 - 4.6. Any decision made to suspend or permanently exclude a pupil will be lawful, proportionate and fair, with respect to legislation relating directly to suspensions or permanent exclusions and the school's wider legal duties, including the ECHR.
 - 4.7. All suspensions or permanent exclusions will be formally recorded on the pupil information system.

- 4.8. When sending a pupil home following any suspension or permanent exclusion, the headteacher will ensure that they exercise their duty of care at all times and will always inform the parents.
- 4.9. The headteacher will apply the civil standard of proof when responding to the facts relating to a suspension or permanent exclusion, i.e. that 'on the balance of probabilities' it is more likely than not that the facts are true.
- 4.10. The headteacher may withdraw any suspension or permanent exclusion that has not already been reviewed by the governing body.
- 4.11. At all times, the headteacher will take into account their legal duties under the Equality Act 2010 and the 'Special educational needs and disability code of practice: 0 to 25 years', ensuring that they do not discriminate on any grounds, e.g. race, sex, disability, and will not increase the severity of a pupil's exclusion on these grounds.
- 4.12. The headteacher will not issue any 'informal' or 'unofficial' suspensions, such as sending a pupil home to 'cool-off', regardless of whether or not the parents have agreed to this.
- 4.13. The headteacher will not use the threat of suspension or permanent exclusion as a means of instructing parents to remove their child from the premises.

5. Factors to consider when suspending or permanently excluding a pupil

- 5.1. When considering the suspension or permanent exclusion of a pupil, the headteacher will:
 - Allow the pupil the opportunity to present their case.
 - Take into account any contributing factors that are identified after a case of poor behaviour has occurred, e.g. if the pupil's wellbeing has been compromised, or they have been subjected to bullying.
 - Take into consideration whether the pupil has received multiple suspensions or is approaching the legal limit of 45 suspended days per school year, and whether suspension or permanent exclusion is serving as an effective sanction.
 - Consider early intervention to address underlying causes of disruptive behaviour, including liaising with external agencies, to assess pupils who demonstrate consistently poor behaviour.

- 5.2. The headteacher will consider what extra support may be available for vulnerable pupil groups whose suspension rates are higher, to reduce their risk of suspension or permanent exclusion, including the following:
- LAC
 - Pupils eligible for FSM
 - Pupils with SEND
 - Certain ethnic groups
- 5.3. The headteacher will consider avoiding permanently excluding LAC pupils, those with SEMH issues or pupils with an EHC plan.
- 5.4. Where any member of staff has concerns about vulnerable pupil groups and their behaviour, they will report this to the headteacher who will instigate a multi-agency assessment to determine whether the behavioural issues might be as a result of educational, mental health or other needs and vulnerabilities.
- 5.5. Where SEND or SEMH issues are identified, an individual behaviour plan will be created using the graduated response outlined in the school's Behaviour Policy. If the pupil continues to endanger the physical or emotional wellbeing of other pupils or staff, despite exhausting the graduated response process, then suspension or permanent exclusion may be considered.
- 5.6. In accordance with the Equality Act 2010, under no circumstances will a pupil with identified SEND or SEMH issues be suspended or permanently excluded before the graduated response process has been completed.
- 5.7. Where a pupil with SEND or SEMH issues is permanently excluded because of a SEND or SEMH-related need that could not be met at the school, detailed records will be kept highlighting that these pupils are closely tracked and show that the school has a close relationship with the pupil's next destination.
- 5.8. The headteacher will work in conjunction with the parents of any pupil with additional needs, to establish the most effective support mechanisms.
- 5.9. Other reasons for removal of children from school see appendix A

6. Duty to inform parents

- 6.1. Following the headteacher's decision to suspend or permanently exclude a pupil, they will immediately inform the parents, in person or by telephone, of the period of the suspension and the reasons behind this. Legislative changes mean that if a pupil has a social worker, or if a pupil is looked-after, the headteacher must, also without delay after their decision, notify the social worker and/or Virtual School Head, as applicable.

6.2. The headteacher will inform the parents in writing (electronically if written permission has been received from the parents for notices to be sent this way) of the following:

- The reason(s) for the suspension or permanent exclusion
- The length of the fixed-period suspension or, for a permanent exclusion, the fact that it is permanent
- Their right to raise any representations about the permanent exclusion to the governing body, including how the pupil will be involved in this and how the representations will be made
- Their right to attend a meeting where there is a legal requirement for the governing body to consider the permanent exclusion, and the fact that they are able to bring an accompanying individual
- The arrangements that have been made for the pupil to continue their education prior to the organisation of any alternative provision, or the pupil's return to school.
- Relevant sources of free, impartial information

6.3. Where the pupil is of compulsory school age, the headteacher will inform the parents by the end of the afternoon session that:

- For the first five days of the suspension or permanent exclusion (or until the start date of any alternative provision or the end of the suspension or permanent exclusion where this is earlier), parents are legally required to ensure that their child is not present in a public place during school hours without justification, and that parents may receive a penalty fine if they fail to do so.

6.4. Where the headteacher has arranged alternative provision, they will also inform the parents of the following:

- The start and end date for any provision of full-time education
- The address at which the provision will take place
- Any information necessary for the pupil to identify the person they should report to on the starting date

6.5. Where the headteacher is unable to provide information on alternative provision by the end of the afternoon session, they will provide the information in a subsequent written notice without further delay, and within 48 hours of the pupil beginning the provision.

- 6.6. If the alternative provision is due to begin before the sixth day of the suspension or permanent exclusion, the headteacher is able to give less than 48 hours of notice, with parental consent.
- 6.7. If the headteacher has decided to suspend the pupil for a further fixed period following their original suspension, or to permanently exclude them, they will notify the parents without delay and issue a new suspension notice to parents.
- 6.8. A headteacher is able to cancel an exclusion before the governing body has met to consider whether the pupil should be reinstated. This practice is sometimes known as withdrawing or rescinding an exclusion. If this occurs, the parents, the governing body and the local authority, must be notified and, if relevant, the social worker and Virtual School Head.

7. Duty to inform the Trust ELT, governing body and LA

- 7.1. The headteacher will inform the Trust ELT, governing body and LA, without delay, of the following:
 - Any permanent exclusions (including where a fixed-period suspension is followed by a decision to permanently exclude the pupil)
 - Any suspensions which would result in the pupil being suspended for more than five school days in a term (or more than 10 lunchtimes)
 - Any suspensions or permanent exclusions which would result in the pupil being absent from an examination or national curriculum test
- 7.2. For any suspensions or permanent exclusions, other than those above, the headteacher will notify the governing body and LA once per term. Legislative changes mean that this must be done regardless of the length of a suspension.
- 7.3. All notifications to the governing body and LA will include the reasons for suspension or permanent exclusion and the duration of any fixed-period suspension.

- 7.4. If the pupil who is suspended or permanently excluded lives outside the LA in which the school is located, the headteacher will notify the pupil's 'home authority'.

8. Arranging education for suspended or permanently excluded pupils

- 8.1. For any suspensions of more than five school days, the governing body will arrange suitable full-time education for the pupil, which will begin no later than the sixth day of suspension.
- 8.2. Where a pupil receives consecutive fixed-period suspensions, these will be regarded as cumulative, and full-time education will still have to be provided from the sixth day of suspensions.
- 8.3. For permanent exclusions, full-time education will also be provided for the pupil from the sixth day of exclusion.
- 8.4. The governing body will not arrange full-time education for any pupil who is currently in their final year of compulsory education, and who does not have any further public examinations to sit.
- 8.5. The governing body is aware that it is beneficial to suspended or permanently excluded pupils to begin their alternative education arrangements before the sixth day of exclusion. The governing body will always attempt to arrange alternative provision before the sixth day of exclusion.
- 8.6. Where it is not possible to arrange alternative provision during the first five days of exclusion, the school will ensure that they take reasonable steps to set and mark work for the suspended or permanently excluded pupil.
- 8.7. If a pupil with SEND has been suspended or permanently excluded, the governing body will ensure that:
- Any alternative provision is arranged in consultation with the pupil's parents, who are able to request preferences.
 - When identifying alternative provision, any EHC plan is reviewed/the pupil's needs are reassessed, also in consultation with the pupil's parents.

9. Considering suspensions or permanent exclusions

- 9.1. The governing body will consider any representations made by parents in regard to permanent exclusions.
- 9.2. Parents and, where requested, a friend or representative, the headteacher and a member of the LA will be invited to attend any consideration of permanent exclusions and will be able to make representations.
- 9.3. Any meeting to consider reinstatement of a pupil will be arranged at a date and time convenient for all parties, and in compliance with any statutory time limits.
- 9.4. Any governing body reinstatement meetings and IRPs can be held via the use of remote access (for example, live video link) for suspension and permanent exclusions if requested by the parents, provided certain criteria are satisfied. Meetings held via the use of remote access should not be a default option and face to face meetings should always be encouraged.
- 9.5. The governing body will consider the reinstatement of an excluded pupil, where:
 - The exclusion is permanent.
 - The suspension is for a fixed-period and would bring the pupil's total number of suspended school days to more than 15 in any given term.
 - The suspension or permanent exclusion would result in the pupil missing a public examination.
- 9.6. In the case of a fixed-period suspension, where the pupil's total number of suspended days is more than five but less than 15 school days within a term, if requested by the parents, the governing body will consider suspensions or permanent exclusions within 50 school days of receiving notification.
- 9.7. In the case of a fixed period suspension, where the pupil's total number of suspended school days does not amount to more than five, in the absence of any such representations, the governing body is not required to meet and cannot direct the reinstatement of the pupil.
- 9.8. Where suspension or permanent exclusion would result in a pupil missing a public examination, the governing body will consider the suspension or permanent exclusion before the test to decide whether the pupil should be reinstated in time to take the examination.

If it is not practicable for a sufficient number of governors to consider the decision before the examination, a smaller sub-committee will consider the suspension or permanent exclusion and decide whether or not to reinstate the pupil.

9.10. In light of the above, the governing body will also consider whether it would be appropriate to allow the suspended or permanently excluded pupil to enter the premises to take the examination.

9.11. When considering the reinstatement of a permanently excluded pupil, the governing body will:

- Only discuss the exclusion with the parties present at the meeting.
- Ask for any written evidence prior to the meeting.
- Circulate any written evidence and information to all parties, at least five school days in advance of the meeting.
- Allow pupils and parents to be accompanied by a person of their choice at the meeting.
- Consider what reasonable adjustments need to be made to support the attendance and contribution of parties at the meeting.
- Identify the steps needed to enable and encourage the excluded pupil to attend the meeting and speak on their behalf, or how they may contribute personal views by other means if attendance is not possible.
- Consider the interests and circumstances of the excluded pupil, including the grounds for exclusion.

10. Reaching a decision

10.1. After considering exclusions (see appendix B), the governing body will either:

- Decline to reinstate the pupil.
- Direct the reinstatement of the pupil immediately, or on a specified date.

10.2. If reinstatement would make no practical difference, e.g. if the pupil has already returned to school following a fixed-period suspension or the parents make clear they do not want their child reinstated, the governing body will still consider whether the pupil should be officially reinstated, and whether the headteacher's decision to suspend or permanently exclude the pupil was fair, lawful and proportionate, based on the evidence presented.

10.3. The governing body will apply the civil standard of proof when responding to the facts relating to an exclusion, it is more likely than not that the facts are true.

10.4. To reach a decision, the governing body will:

- Identify the steps they intend to take to ensure that all parties involved will have the opportunity to participate and present their views.
- Ensure that minutes are taken of the meeting as a record of the evidence that was considered.
- Ask all parties to withdraw from the meeting before concluding their decision.
- Consider whether the exclusion of the pupil was lawful, proportionate and fair, taking into account the headteacher's legal duties and any evidence that was presented to the governing body in relation to the decision to exclude.
- Record the outcome of the decision on the pupil's educational records, along with copies, which will be kept for at least six months.
- Make a note of their findings, where they have considered an exclusion but cannot reinstate the pupil.

11. Notification of considered exclusions

11.1. The governing body will notify the parents of the excluded pupil, the headteacher and the LA of their decision following the consideration of an exclusion, in writing and without delay.

11.2. In the case of a permanent exclusion, where the governing body decides not to reinstate the pupil, they will notify the parents:

- That it is permanent, and their right for it to be reviewed by an independent review panel.
- Of the date by which an application for review must be made.
- Of the name and address of whom the review application should be submitted to.
- That any application should set out the grounds on which it is being made and that, where appropriate, this should include reference to how a pupil's SEND is considered relevant to the exclusion.

- That, regardless of whether a pupil has been identified as having SEND, the parents have a right to require the governing body to ensure a SEND expert attends the review.
 - Of the role of the SEND expert that will attend the review, and that the parents will not be charged for this.
 - That they are required to make it clear if they wish for a SEND expert to attend the review.
 - That they may appoint someone at their own expense to make representations to the panel.
- 11.3. The governing body will also notify parents that, if they believe an exclusion has been issued as a result of discrimination, then they are required to make a claim under the Equality Act 2010 to the First-tier Tribunal (SEND), and that this should be within six months of when the discrimination allegedly took place.
- 11.4. After any conclusion, the governing body will notify the parents, and all other parties involved, of the decision that was made and the reasoning for this, in sufficient detail.
12. Removing permanently excluded pupils from the school register
- 12.1. The headteacher will remove pupils from the school register if:
- 15 school days have passed since the parents were notified of the governing body's decision not to reinstate the pupil and no application for an independent panel review has been received.
 - The parents have stated in writing that they will not be applying for an independent panel review following a permanent exclusion.
- 12.2. If an application for an independent panel review has been made within 15 school days, the headteacher will wait until the review has been determined, or abandoned, and until the governing body has completed any reconsideration that the panel recommended or directed it to carry out, before removing the pupil from the school register.
- 12.3. If a pupil's name is to be removed from the register, the headteacher will make a return to the LA, which will include:
- All the particulars which were entered in the register.
 - The address of any parent with whom the pupil normally resides.

- The grounds upon which the pupil's name is to be removed from the register.
- 12.4. Any return to the LA will be made as soon as the grounds for removal are met and no later than the date in which the pupil's name was removed.
- 12.5. If a pupil's name has been removed from the register and a discrimination claim is made, the pupil may be reinstated following a decision made by the First-tier Tribunal (SEND) or County Court.
- 12.6. Whilst a pupil's name remains on the admissions register, the appropriate code will be used to mark the pupil's attendance:
- Code B: Education off-site
 - Code D: Dual registration
 - Code E: Absent and not attending alternative provision

13. Independent review panel

- 13.1. The LA will review the governing body's decision not to reinstate a permanently excluded pupil, if the parents submit their application for this within the required time frame.
- 13.2. The LA will constitute an independent review panel of three or five members that represent the following categories:
- A lay member to chair the panel. This individual will not have worked in any school in a paid capacity.
 - A current or former school governor who has served for at least 12 consecutive months in the last five years.
 - A headteacher or individual who has been a headteacher within the last five years.
- 13.3. Parents are required to submit their applications within:
- 15 school days of the governing body's notification of their decision.
 - 15 school days of the final determination of a discriminatory claim made under the Equality Act 2010.
- 13.4. Any application made outside of this timeframe will not be reviewed.
- 13.5. Parents are able to request an independent panel review even if they did not make a case to, or attend, the governing body's initial consideration of the exclusion.

13.6. The LA will adhere to all statutory guidelines when conducting an independent panel review, as outlined in the DfE's statutory guidance document 'Exclusion from maintained schools, academies and pupil referral units in England' 2017.

14. Appointing a SEND expert

14.1. If requested by parents in their application for an independent review panel, the LA will appoint a SEND expert to attend the panel and cover the associated costs of this appointment.

14.2. The LA will make arrangements to indemnify the SEND expert against any legal costs and expenses reasonably incurred as a result of any decisions or actions connected to the review and which are taken in good faith.

14.3. Parents have a right to request the attendance of a SEND expert at a review, regardless of whether the school recognises that their child has SEND.

14.4. The SEND expert's role is set out in section 15 of this policy.

14.5. Individuals will not serve as a SEND expert if they have, or at any time have had, any connection with the LA, school, parents or pupil, or the incident leading to the exclusion, which might reasonably be taken to raise doubts about their ability to act impartially; however, an individual is not taken to have such a connection solely because they are an employee of the LA.

14.6. The SEND expert will be a professional with first-hand experience of the assessment and support of SEND, as well as an understanding of the legal requirements on schools in relation to SEND. Examples of suitable individuals might include educational psychologists; specialist SEND teachers; SENCOs; and behaviour support teachers.

14.7. Recently retired individuals are not precluded from fulfilling this role; however, the LA will, during interview, assess the knowledge of such individuals in order to ensure that they have a good understanding of current practice and the legal requirements on schools in relation to SEND.

14.8. Whilst individuals are not automatically taken to be partial simply because they are an employee of, or contracted by, the LA, they will not have had any previous involvement in the assessment or support of SEND for the excluded pupil, or siblings of the excluded pupil. The LA will request that prospective SEND experts declare any conflict of interest at the earliest opportunity.

- 14.9. The final decision on the appointment of a SEND expert is for the LA to make, but it will take reasonable steps to ensure that parents have confidence in the impartiality and capability of the SEND expert. Where possible, this will include offering parents a choice of SEND expert. In order to meet its duties within the statutory time frame, the LA will consider maintaining a list of individuals capable of performing the role of SEND expert in advance of a request.
- 14.10. The LA will determine the amount of any payment in relation to the appointment of the SEND expert, such as financial loss, travel and subsistence allowances.

15. The role of a SEND expert

- 15.1. The SEND expert's role is analogous to an expert witness, providing (orally and/or written) impartial advice to the panel on how SEND might be relevant to the exclusion. The SEND expert will base their advice on the evidence provided to the panel. The SEND expert's role does not include making an assessment of the pupil's SEND.
- 15.2. The focus of the SEND expert's advice will be on whether the school's policies which relate to SEND, or the application of these policies in relation to the excluded pupil, were legal, reasonable and procedurally fair. If the SEND expert believes that this was not the case, they will, where possible, advise the panel on the possible contribution this could have made to the circumstances of the pupil's exclusion.
- 15.3. Where the school does not recognise that a pupil has SEND, the SEND expert will advise the panel on whether they believe the school acted in a legal, reasonable and procedurally fair way with respect to the identification of any SEND that the pupil may potentially have, and any contribution that this could have made to the circumstances of the pupil's exclusion.
- 15.4. The SEND expert will not criticise a school's policies or actions simply because they believe a different approach should have been followed or because another school might have taken a different approach.

16. Appointing a clerk

- 16.1. The LA will decide whether to appoint a clerk to the independent review panel, or to make alternative arrangements to administer the panel.

16.2. Where a clerk is appointed the LA will ensure that the clerk did not serve as clerk to the governing body when the decision was made not to reinstate the pupil.

17. The role of a clerk

17.1. The clerk's role is to provide advice to the panel and parties to the review on procedure, law and statutory guidance on exclusions.

17.2. The clerk will:

- Identify, in advance of the meeting, whether the excluded pupil wishes to attend the panel hearing, taking reasonable steps to enable the pupil to feedback their views, irrespective of their attendance.
- Identify, in advance of the meeting, whether any alleged victims of the incident(s) leading up to the exclusion wish to attend the panel hearing, taking reasonable steps to enable them to feedback their views, irrespective of their attendance.
- Ensure that the panel is able to hear from any witnesses to the incident(s) leading to the exclusion, taking into account the fact that some of these people may be pupils at the school (Pupils under 18-years-old will not be allowed to appear in person without parental consent).
- Inform the parents, headteacher, governing body and the LA, that they are entitled to: make oral and written representations to the panel; attend the hearing; and be represented.
- Ensure that all parties are:
 - Provided with copies of relevant papers at least five school days before the review, notifying the panel if any requested documents have not been provided in case the panel wishes to adjourn until a later date.
 - Informed about who is attending the meeting, and what their roles are.
- Attend the review and ensure that minutes are produced in accordance with instructions from the independent review panel.

17.3. Where a clerk is not appointed, the LA will undertake the functions outlined in paragraphs 16.1 and 16.2 of this policy.

18. The duties of independent review panel members in the conduct of a review panel

- 18.1. The role of the panel is to review the governing body's decision not to reinstate a permanently excluded pupil. In reviewing the decision, the panel will consider the interests and circumstances of the excluded pupil, including the circumstances in which the pupil was excluded, and have regard to the interests of other pupils and people working at the school.
- 18.2. The panel will apply the civil standard of proof, rather than the criminal standard of 'beyond reasonable doubt'.
- 18.3. Following the review, the panel will do one of the following:
 - Uphold the decision.
 - Recommend that the governing body reconsiders reinstatement.
 - Quash the decision and direct that the governing body reconsiders reinstatement.
- 18.4. The panel's decision does not have to be unanimous and can be decided by a majority vote. It is binding on the pupil, parents, the governing body, headteacher and the LA.

19. Reconsidering reinstatement following a review

- 19.1. Where the independent review panel instructs the governing body to reconsider their decision not to reinstate a pupil, they will do so within 10 school days of being given notice of the review panel's decision.
- 19.2. The school is aware that if the governing body does not offer to reinstate the pupil, then the school will be required to make a payment of £4,000 directly to the LA in which the school is located.
- 19.3. If, following reconsideration, the governing body offers to reinstate the pupil but the parents decline, no adjustment will be made to the school's budget.
- 19.4. Following reconsideration, the governing body will notify the parents, the headteacher and the LA of their reconsidered decision and the reasons for this.

20. Criminal investigations

- 20.1. The headteacher will not postpone taking a decision to exclude a pupil due to a police investigation being underway, or any criminal proceedings that are in place.

- 20.2. The headteacher will give particular consideration when deciding to exclude a pupil where evidence is limited by a police investigation, to ensure that any decision made is fair and reasonable.
- 20.3. If the governing body is required to consider the headteacher's decision in these circumstances, they will not postpone the meeting and will make a decision based on the evidence available.

21. Training requirements

- 21.1. The LA will ensure that all independent review panel members and clerks have received training within the two years prior to the date of the review.
- 21.2. Training will cover:
 - The requirements of the legislation, regulations and statutory guidance governing exclusions.
 - The need for the panel to observe procedural fairness and the rules of natural justice.
 - The role of the chair of a review panel.
 - The role of the clerk to a review panel.
 - The duties of headteachers, governing bodies and the panel under the Equality Act 2010.
 - The effect of section 6 of the Human Rights Act 1998 and the need to act in a manner compatible with human rights protected by that Act.
- 21.3. Clerks will also have an up-to-date understanding on developments in case law which are relevant to exclusion.

Planned Move

Appendix A

The school has a right to direct a pupil off-site for education to improve his or her behaviour. A pupil can also transfer to another school as part of a managed move where this occurs with the consent of the parties involved, including the parents. (DfE 14)

A managed move is a 10 week trial placement agreed with another school. If the placement is successful the child may stay at the other school. If the placement is not successful the child will return to the original school.

Removal from the School for Other Reasons

In the vast majority of cases a pupil will only be asked to leave the school when excluded. There are however three special sets of circumstances when a school can legally ask a pupil to leave the school site without imposing an exclusion:

1. A pupil is accused of a serious criminal offence, but the offence took place outside the school's jurisdiction.

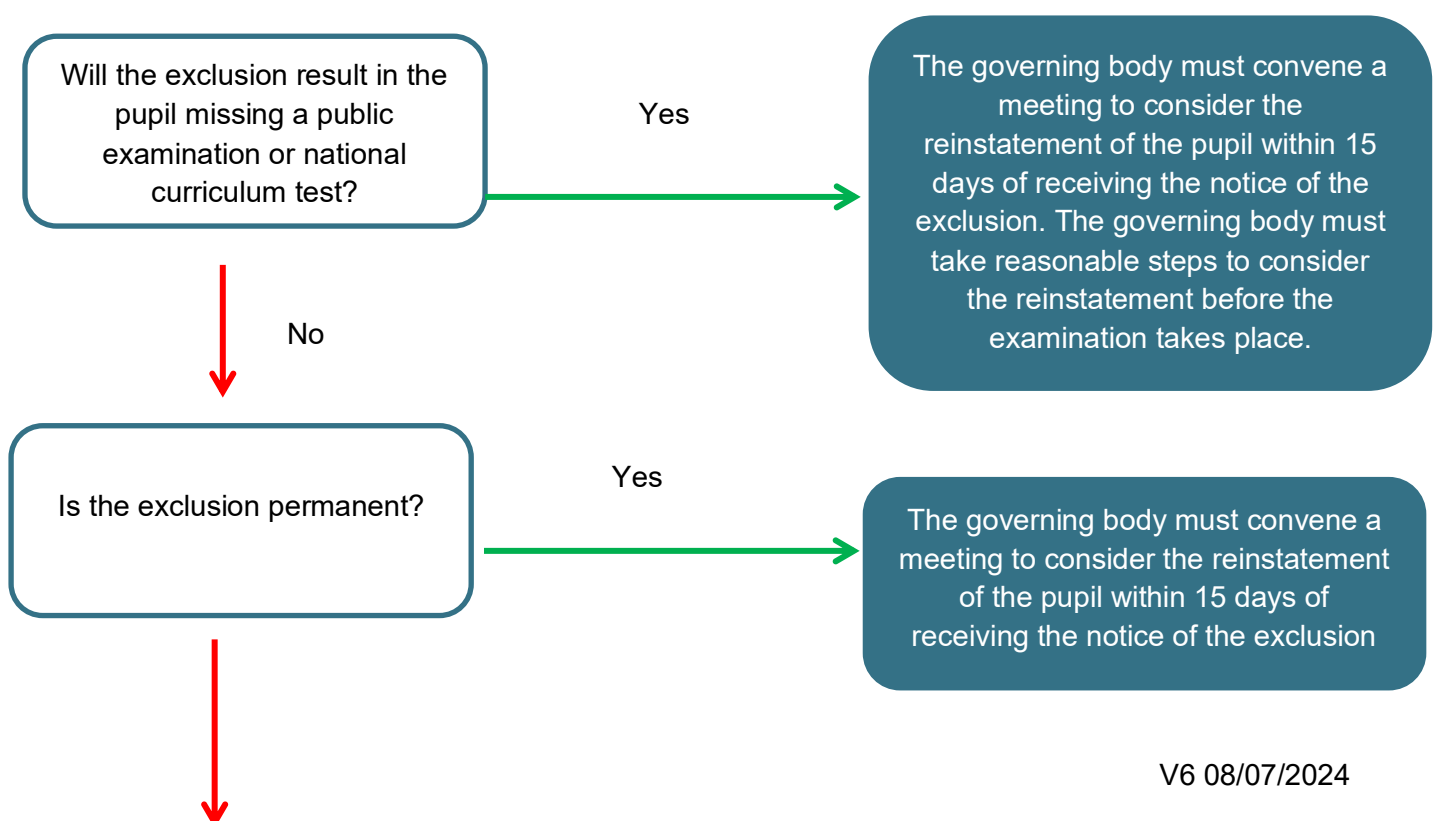

In these circumstances the head teacher may decide that it is in the interests both of the pupil and the school for the pupil to be educated off site for a certain period, subject to review at regular intervals. This would not constitute an exclusion. It would be the school's responsibility to ensure the pupil's full time education continues while off site, and arrangements would have to be in place before the absence began. The arrangements should be kept under periodic review involving the parents.

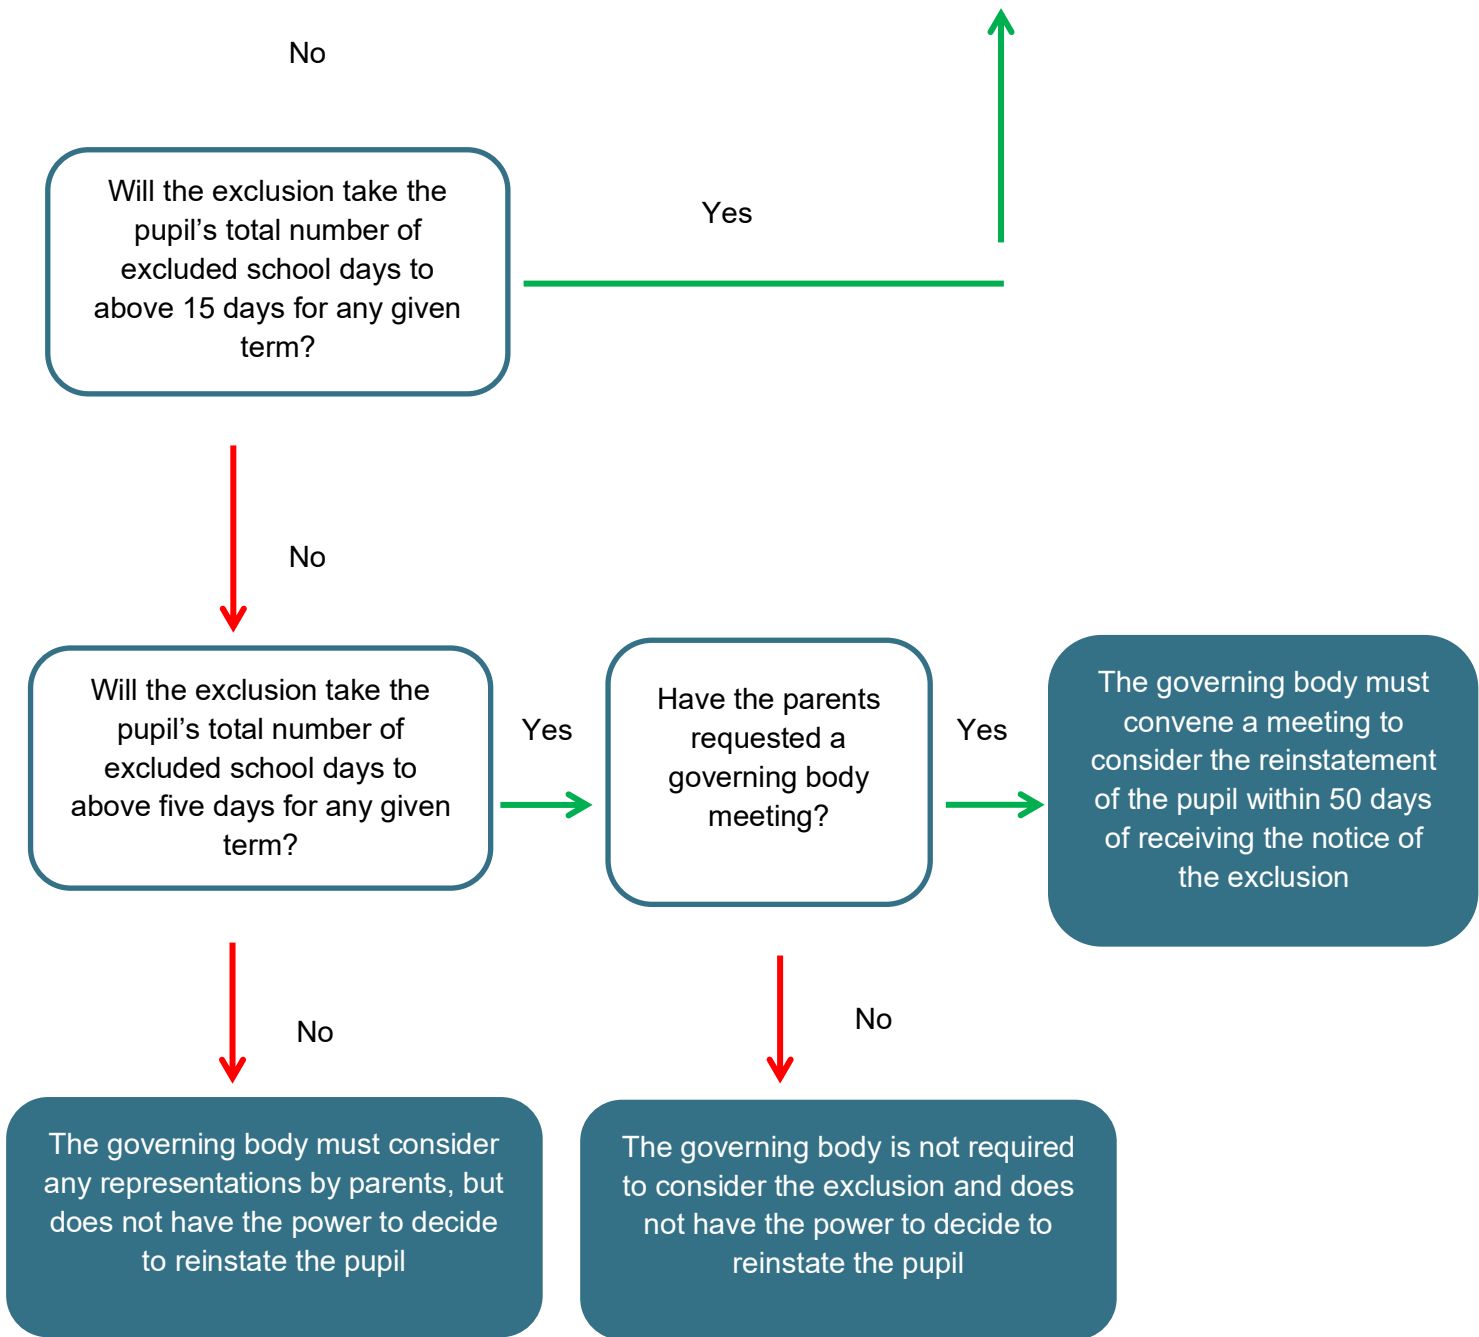

2. For medical reasons a pupil's presence on the school site represents a serious risk to the health or safety of other pupils or school staff.

Head teachers and teachers in charge may send a pupil home, after consultation with that pupil's parents and a health professional (for example, a school nurse) as appropriate, where because of a diagnosed illness such as a notifiable disease he or she poses an immediate and serious risk to the health and safety of other pupils and staff. This is not an exclusion, but it is an authorised absence and should be recorded as such in the attendance register. It should be for the shortest possible time. If difficulties persist, the head teacher should seek medical advice. Health and safety considerations, including a risk assessment, can contribute to a school's case for exclusion, but cannot in themselves be grounds for exclusion, which can only lawfully be for disciplinary reasons. Similarly, pupils cannot be sent home on health and safety grounds for their own protection because they are being bullied. It is not appropriate to send home children with special educational needs (SEN), with conditions such as attention deficit hyperactivity disorder (ADHD) and autism, purely for that reason and schools should arrange a statutory annual or interim/emergency review if they feel they are no longer able to meet a child's needs. The child should not be sent home in anticipation of such a review. (DfE 34)

3. The pupil is given permission to leave the school premises briefly to remedy breaches of the school's rules on behaviour or uniform.

This is not an exclusion but an authorised absence. If the pupil continues to breach uniform rules as a way to be sent home to avoid school, the pupil's absence can be recorded as an unauthorised absence.

'Any pupil who commits serious or persistent breach of the new COVID-19 protection rules may be sanctioned by the headteacher using the full range of sanctions available, dependent on the seriousness of the breach, up to and including in extreme cases permanent exclusion.'
