

My Prayer (Philippians 1:9-11) - Capo 3

For Donna's 50th

C            Em            F            G
And it is my prayer that your love may abound
C            Em            F            G
more and more, with knowledge and all discernment,
C            Em            F            G
so that you may approve what is excellent,
C            Em            F            G
and so be pure and blameless for the day of Christ, F                            G                            C filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Em    Am            F            G            C
Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God.
