

CAPABILITY OVERVIEW:

Supply Chain Risk and Resilience

● WHAT IS SUPPLY CHAIN RISK AND RESILIENCE?

In an era of geopolitical tensions, climate change, cybersecurity threats, and supply chain disruptions, resilience is no longer a luxury — it's a necessity.

Australian government agencies and commercial businesses must ensure their supply chains are agile, risk-proof, and future-ready to mitigate disruptions, maintain service continuity, and protect economic interests.

At Trace Consultants, we specialise in building resilient supply chains that enable organisations to:

1. Anticipate risks
2. Respond effectively to disruptions
3. Maintain stability in a rapidly changing environment
