

Seasonal and fresh but not ever-changing, our menu is a urban and contemporary vision on bistrot classics. We do not use ultra-processed, preprocessed or low-quality food. It is difficult to work like this on an island that lives off tourism, but if you are looking for frozen nuggets, pre-cooked paella or cheap fish and seafood caught 10,000 kilometres away from Santanyi, we are not that kind of place.

Wine is our passion and one of the reasons why La Nouvelle Famille was born. We are not pedantic and boring glass-shakers, we understand wine as an honest drink from the vineyard to your mouth that makes people smile and enjoy. We only work with wineries that work with passion, integrity and a deep respect for nature.
