

INCLUSION BADGE

Any social action work that champions diversity and inclusion or promotes equal rights for any of the nine protected characteristics.

TOPICS

Choose one or more of the following topics

- ☐ Identity-based bullying behaviour
- ☐ Consent and boundaries
- ☐ Equal rights
- ☐ Gender norms and stereotypes
- ☐ LGBTQ+ acceptance (for example, tackling homophobia, biphobia, transphobia, etc)
- ☐ Racial equality
- ☐ Religious awareness
- ☐ Disabled or differently-abled awareness
- ☐ Equality and empowerment for all ages
- ☐ Types of families (adopted or fostered children, single-parent families, etc.)

ACTIONS

To earn the Inclusion Badge, complete five of the following actions, or get creative and make up your own!

- | | | | |
|--|---|--|--|
| <input type="radio"/> Hold a whole school assembly to introduce the Anti-Bullying Ambassadors and share the importance of celebrating diversity and inclusion. | <input type="radio"/> Take part in a month-long celebration (such as LGBT+ Pride Month, Black History Month or Disability History Month). | <input type="radio"/> Create an inclusive and accessible anti-bullying video using sign language or captioning. | <input type="radio"/> Choreograph a dance or drama performance about responding to identity-based bullying behaviour. |
| <input type="radio"/> Organise a whole school awareness day for a cause or event relating to diversity and inclusion. | <input type="radio"/> Write a blog or newsletter piece focusing on identity, inclusion and diversity. | <input type="radio"/> Invite a speaker to talk to students about identity, diversity and inclusion, or the nine protected characteristics. | <input type="radio"/> Develop an inclusive and diverse library of books. |
| <input type="radio"/> Conduct a whole school survey evaluating students' experiences of diversity and inclusion at school. | <input type="radio"/> Start a support group or safe space for students from marginalised communities. | <input type="radio"/> Nominate Diversity Champion Awards to celebrate inclusive and accepting behaviours in school. | <input type="radio"/> Organise workshops or activities to celebrate difference (e.g., Odd Socks Day). |
| <input type="radio"/> Host roleplay workshops for students to encourage empathy, allyship, and greater understanding of topics such as sexism, racism, ableism, etc. | <input type="radio"/> Create a whole school commitment or pledge, focusing on inclusion. | <input type="radio"/> Run an equal rights focused poster competition for the whole school to take part in. | <input type="radio"/> Attend any additional training provided by The Diana Award. |
| <input type="radio"/> Run 'How to be an Upstander' training from our Resource Centre, providing different ways to intervene safely when you witness identity-based bullying behaviour. | <input type="radio"/> Rewrite an inclusive Anti-Bullying Policy (considering the protected characteristics). | <input type="radio"/> Provide all school staff with student-led training on identity, diversity, and inclusion. | <input type="radio"/> Organise a celebration event to learn about different cultures (you could explore food, music, religions, lifestyles, etc.). |
| <input type="radio"/> Design a visual display in school, for example focusing on LGBTQ+ role models for LGBTQ+ History Month. | | | |