Gain strategies to elevate your performance through hands-on workshops, dynamic sessions, and the largest industry expo, featuring the latest in supply chain technology and innovation. Be prepared to lead the industry forward!

FEATURED USPS SESSIONS

PMG Keynote Address – The Postal Service has embarked on its most ambitious transformation in 250 years, reshaping its network, redesigning facilities, building a high-performing team, and investing in one of the largest electric delivery fleets. Hear Postmaster General Louis DeJoy provide an update on the progress of these changes, how they are positioning the Postal Service to better serve the American public, and how they benefit industry partners in the shipping and mailing supply chain.

Tuesday General Session – Join USPS officers as they discuss the evolution of their network to support new products and services driving the financial sustainability and growth of the Postal Service. This session will provide an in-depth look at mail and package flow and USPS's mission to achieve on-time delivery, positioning USPS as the nation's carrier of choice.

PMG Town Hall Meeting – Join the Postmaster General as he addresses questions from customers, and discusses the strategies of the Delivering for America plan. Attendees may submit questions in advance for PMG insights on current and future Postal changes. This is an opportunity to learn more about how the USPS has aligned products, enhanced the transportation network, and positioned itself to better serve the public.
