

Marmalade Schools

Enhanced Provision Information

The Marmalade Schools operate both morning, afternoon, breakfast and lunch bunch sessions with a full enhanced provision offering. The Early Years education grant is deducted from the cost of these sessions to leave an agreed package of additional services.

For parents who only want the fully funded offer these parents will receive no other invoice from the Marmalade Schools. We will provide the basic government funded childcare. These fully funded sessions run from 1-4pm are daycare and do not benefit from any of the enhanced provision the Marmalade Schools provide as part of the fees.

For clarity, the fully funded offer does not include the following items which are only available with the enhanced provision.

- Access to our literacy and numeracy curriculum/Montessori resources and all we do to add to the basic EYFS - our enhanced offer.
- Staff pupil ratios will be at the government stipulated limits and not the higher ratios of staff that the enhanced offer provides as standard
- Peripatetic teachers or special activities
- Tapestry (on-line learning journal)
- Any one-to-one meetings out of the three-hour period.
- The annual curriculum booklet
- Report at the end of the year
- Parents' meetings
- School Trips
- Taking part in the school plays
- End of term gifts
- Party entertainers and party food
- Leaver and Christmas Gifts
- Father Christmas visit
- Attending charity events due to increased ratio demands
- Home Visit
- Nappies
- Smocks or School Bags
- We do not allow children to bring in snacks – due to allergy limitations
- Breakfast/Lunch/Snacks
- Any meetings or paperwork needed for children with additional needs
- Writing an EHCNA
- Attending TAC meetings (children with additional needs)

- Future schools' meetings with Heads/Miss Rozzy

Please note late pick up or any extra hours will have to be paid for separately.

All the activities above are not covered by the government fully funded offer.
