

Terms and Conditions for Accessibility Services

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SERVICE:

1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

- a. The Customer acknowledges that the service provided by AccessiWay constitutes accessibility consulting, which entails a commitment to effort rather than guaranteed results. AccessiWay cannot be held liable for any improper and/or non-compliant use of the accessibility services provided, which shall be considered the sole responsibility of the Customer, thereby releasing AccessiWay from any liability.
- b. AccessiWay is not obligated to review the content and information provided by the Customer.

2. POACHING OF STAFF

- a. The Customer agrees not to engage in any form of poaching of AccessiWay employees, either directly or through third parties, during the entire duration of the accessibility services and for a period of twenty-four months following their termination. Furthermore, the Customer shall not establish any consulting relationships with such individuals without prior written authorization from AccessiWay.
- b. In this context, employee poaching is understood to include, by way of example, any offer of employment and/or collaboration—whether occasional or otherwise—made directly or indirectly by the Customer to employees of AccessiWay. This includes offers made through affiliated or associated companies, entities controlling such companies, or by any other means.
- c. The parties agree that a breach of this obligation obligates the Customer to compensate AccessiWay for the resulting damages. To this end, the parties establish a contractual penalty equal to 100% of the annual gross salary (RAL) of the poached employee or 100% of the employee's annual compensation. This penalty is in addition to any further damages caused by the violation of this prohibition.
