United for Care's Randwick Vertical Village offers private studio apartments designed for people who want independence with support close by. Each apartment includes a kitchenette, ensuite bathroom, bedroom and balcony, with secure entry and automated door access for safety and peace of mind.

The location is ideal for people with psychosocial disability who benefit from a calm, settled home while staying connected to community and everyday routines. Support is available in the building, and residents can choose from weekly activities or enjoy quiet time in their own space.

You are a short walk from:

- Centennial Park
- Royal Randwick Shopping Centre
- Coogee Beach
- Fitness First Randwick
- Randwick Racecourse
- Coastal walks along Sydney's eastern beaches
