

PROVISIONAL ITINERARY
WEDNESDAY 24 – TUESDAY, 30 JUNE

If you're an aviation enthusiast, then the Baltic International Airshow 2026 is one of the most exciting events to put on your calendar next summer.

Held on 27–28 June 2026 at Spilve Aerodrome in Rīga, Latvia, this show has rapidly become the biggest airshow in the Baltic region and a must-visit for families, and photographers alike.

You can expect a packed weekend of dynamic aerial displays, historic and modern aircraft, aerobatic teams, and special night-time performances, all set against the backdrop of an atmosphere buzzing with energy. Whether you're there to capture stunning aviation photos, enjoy one-of-a-kind flight demonstrations, or soak up the festival buzz with food and entertainment on the ground, it's an unforgettable experience for all ages.

In addition to the spectacle of the airshow we will also visit the national aviation museums of all three countries we visit, Lithuania, Latvia and Estonia. Providing a look back at the former Soviet and Eastern Bloc Air Forces of the past with some of their more recent NATO aligned history.

The Ian Allan Tour price is based on a Land-Only basis. You have the option of flying on the same flights as the Tour Manager (TM) – details TBC on the itinerary – or from your local airport to/from Athens by contacting Alex at H-C Travel who will book them for you; or booking your own flights to/from Athens. His phone number is: 01256 7717.

We stay at a hotel on a bed and breakfast (B&B) basis. Travel in-country is by 9-seater mini-van.
