

A large, industrial-style event space with a high ceiling featuring exposed wooden beams and metal trusses. The walls are covered in large-scale projections of white daisies on a green background. Several round tables are set with white tablecloths, white linens, and floral centerpieces. Black chairs with light-colored woven backs are arranged around the tables. The floor is polished and reflects the ambient light. In the background, a large screen displays the text "Thank you to our event sponsors".

“

It was an incredible experience that exceeded my expectations. The Illuminarium staff were hospitable, friendly, and amazing to work with.

-Deloitte

“

The staff went above and beyond to ensure everyone was well taken care of, creating an experience that united the teams and left them talking about it the next day. It was very well coordinated and run.

-IBM

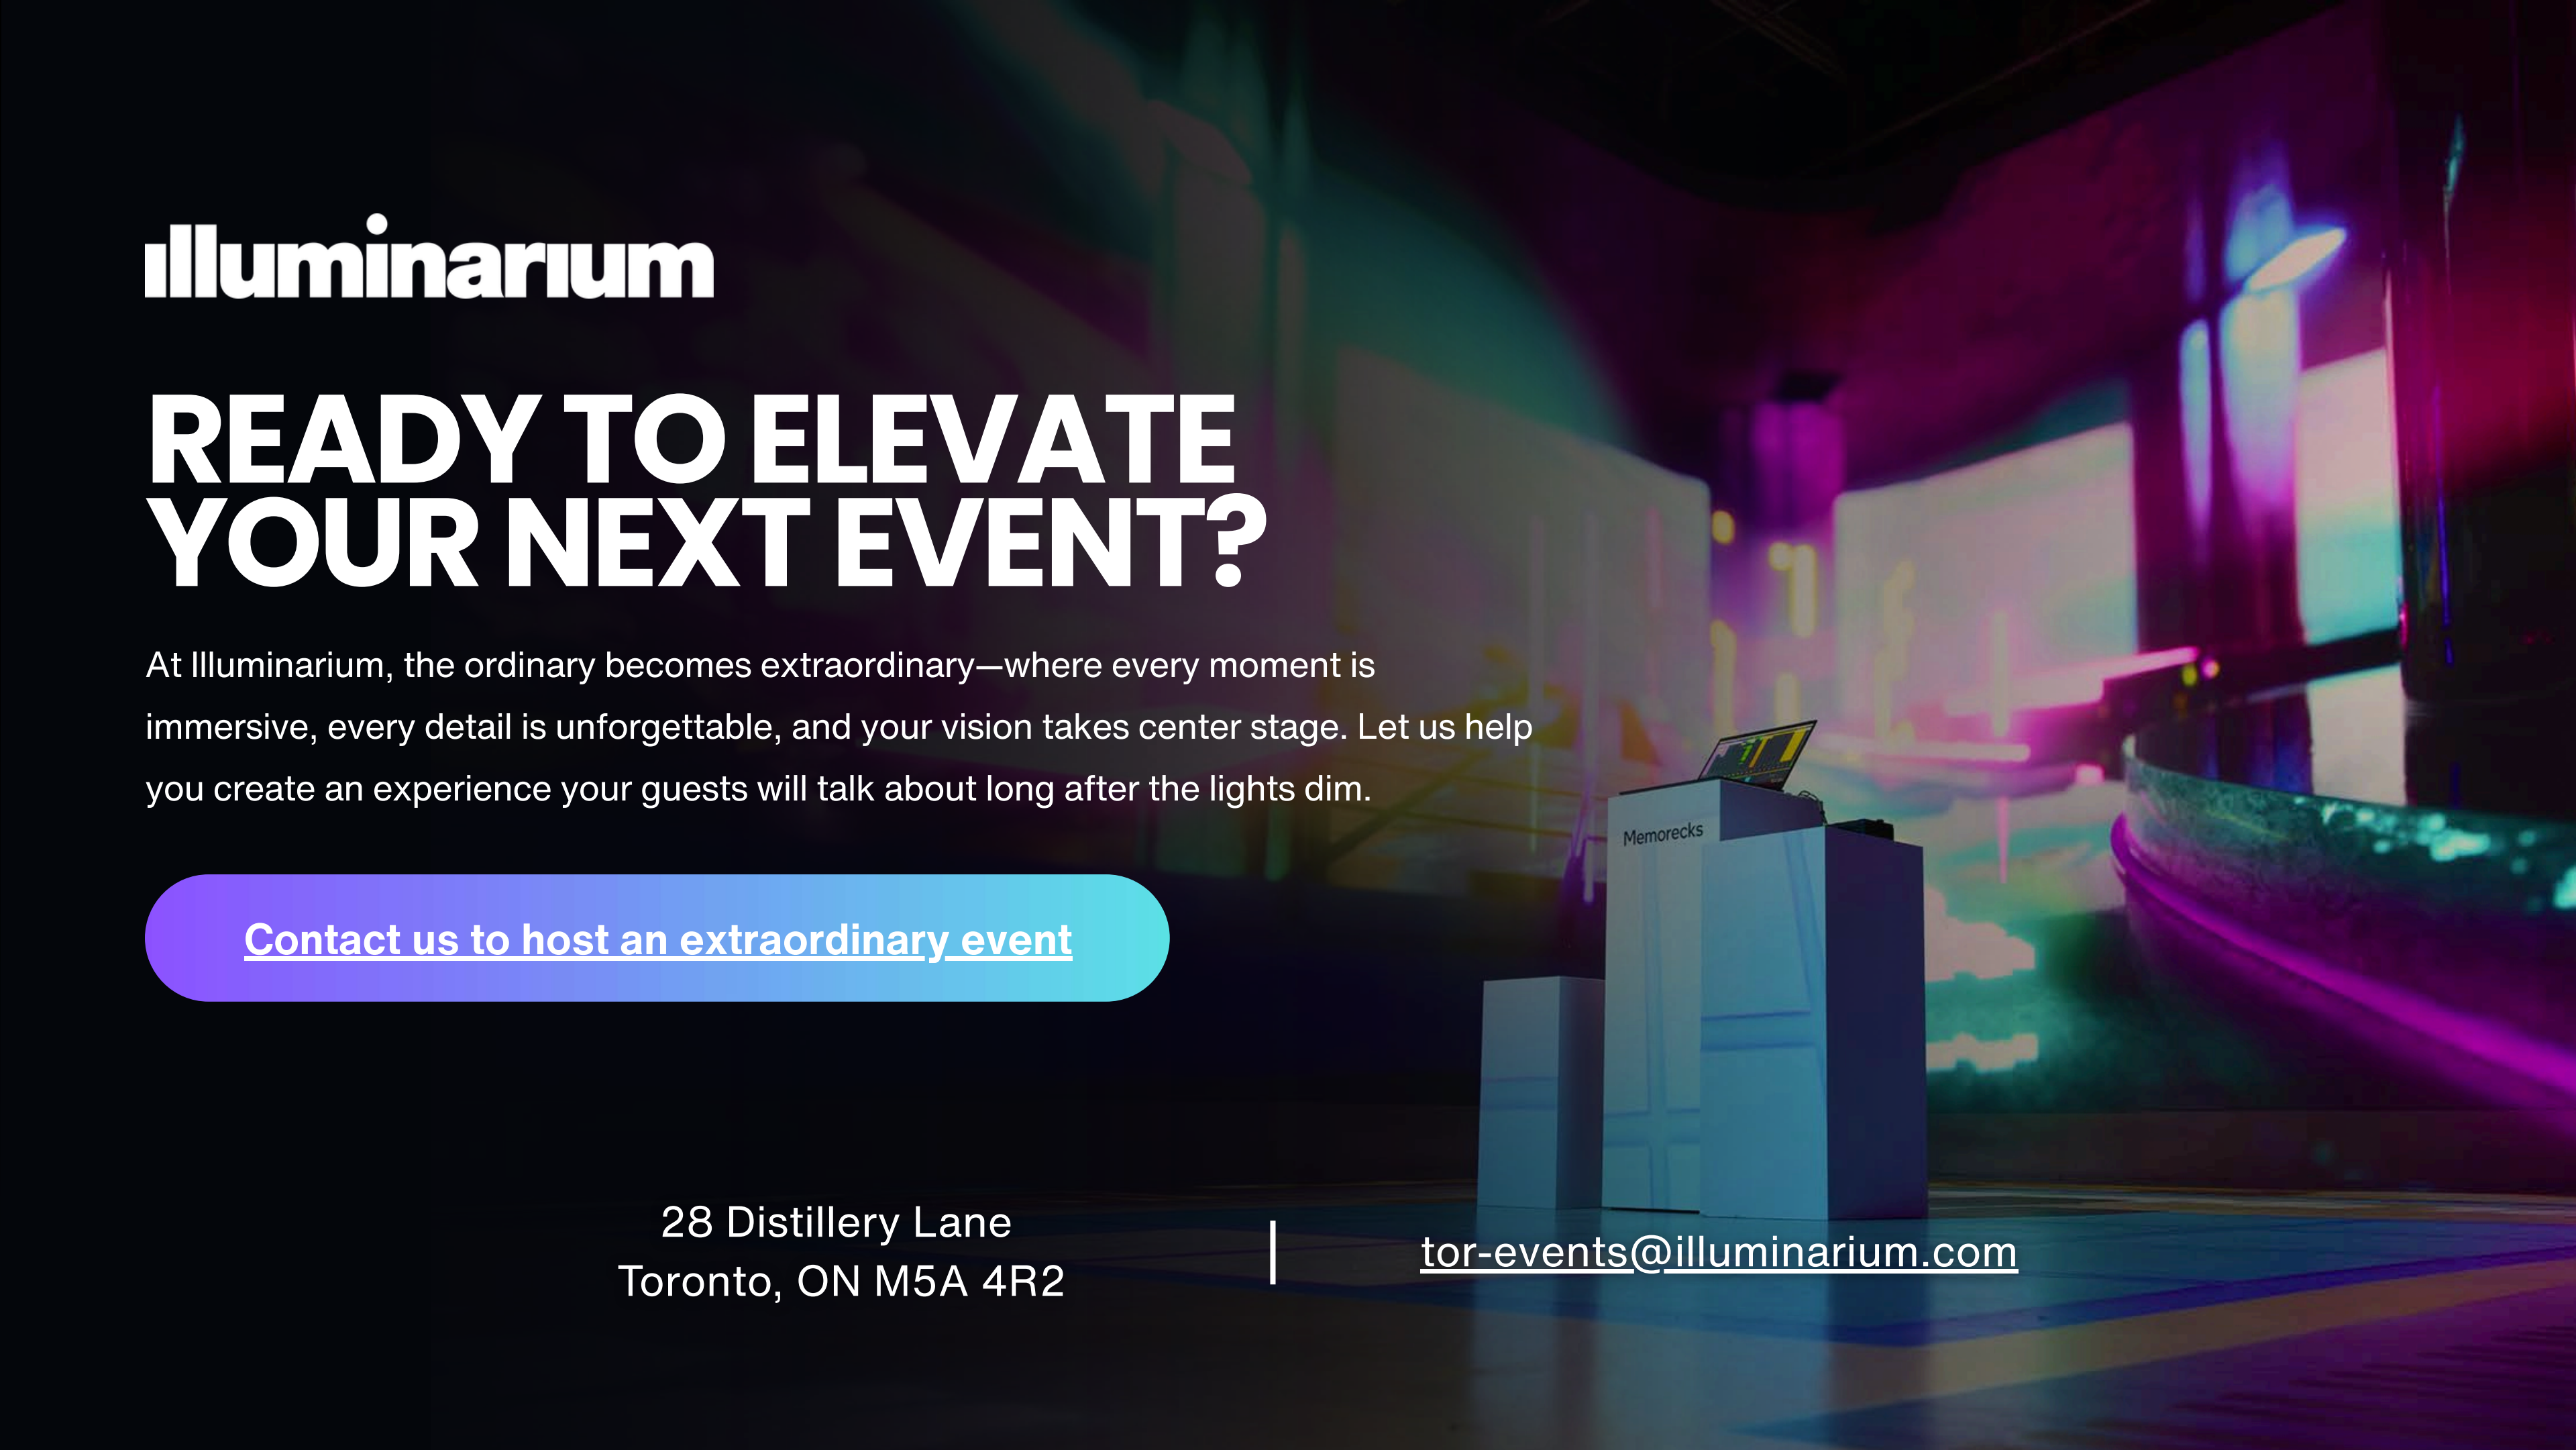

“

The immersive Illuminarium was perfect for stepping away to explore Space and the Savanna while learning about the automotive industry and honeybee culture.
