

IBEW Local 611 Announces 2026 Democratic Primary Endorsements Focused on Strong Labor Standards and Worker Protections

The International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers (IBEW) Local 611 is proud to announce our endorsements for the 2026 Democratic Primary Election in the NM House of Representatives. These candidates have demonstrated a clear, consistent commitment to strengthening union labor, protecting workers’ rights, and enforcing high labor standards across New Mexico.

IBEW Local 611 represents the skilled electrical workforce that powers New Mexico’s homes, businesses, and critical infrastructure. Our endorsed candidates understand that strong labor policy is not optional—it is foundational to building a stable, skilled workforce and ensuring taxpayer and ratepayer investments create high-quality jobs.

IBEW Local 611 proudly endorses the following state legislative candidates:

- Rep. Anita Gonzales, HD 70
- Rep. Yanira Gurrola Valenzuela, HD 16
- Rep. Marian Matthews, HD 27
- Rep. Raymundo Lara, HD 34
- Rep. Miguel Garcia, HD 14
- Rep. Pauline Abeyta, HD 69
- Rep. Martha Garcia, HD 6
- Rep. E Diane Torres, HD 30
- Yolanda Jaramillo, HD 41

IBEW Local 611 is committed to working with elected leaders who will:

- Advance policies that prioritize union labor and support partner employers
- Ensure public and ratepayer investments deliver long-term workforce benefits
- Promote safe, reliable, and resilient energy infrastructure built by skilled professionals
- Protect the integrity of New Mexico’s construction and energy workforce

We encourage our members and all New Mexicans to vote in the 2026 Democratic Primary Election and support candidates who will stand up for working families and the future of our state.

The International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers Local 611 represents skilled electricians and electrical workers across New Mexico. Our members are committed to excellence, safety, and building the infrastructure that powers our homes, businesses, and future.
