

Earth Day 2024

Reusable Bottle Design Contest!

 What's the Buzz? Calling all artists, dreamers, and environmental enthusiasts! We're on the lookout for a design that will grace our limited-edition Earth Day reusable bottle. Whether you're a child with a palette full of dreams or an adult with a passion for artistic expression, this is your chance to make a splash for the Earth!

 Adults & Children Welcome: From budding young artists to seasoned creatives, this contest is open to everyone.

 Earth-Inspired Themes: Let your creativity flow like a river! We encourage designs inspired by nature, conservation, wildlife, and the beauty of our planet.

 Prizes Galore: The winning designs will not only be featured on our exclusive Earth Day 2024 bottles but we also have a special Climate First Bank gift in the works!

How to Enter:

Create Your Masterpiece:

- Design your water bottle masterpiece using any medium you prefer – digital, paint, markers, or mixed media.
- Use the template on the next page as your guide. The size is 9.52 inch wide x 6 inch high (which is the size of the template on the next page!).
- Make sure to incorporate the Climate First Bank logo somewhere! You can find our logo by visiting climatefirstbank.com/logo.

Submit Your Entry:

- Email our marketing team at marketing@climatefirstbank.com with your design as an attachment. Or ask your parent/guardian to send it in for you!
- Include a brief description of the inspiration behind your creation, as well as your name, age, and contact details.

Spread the Word:

- Encourage friends and family to join in the fun and celebrate the power of art for a sustainable future!
