

ALE.14

County Property Taxes

Each California county assesses property taxes on real estate and on business property. Agricultural property is a special kind of business property.

Agricultural businesses with more than a certain amount of business property may need to file an Agricultural Property Statement, Form BOE-571-A or F, with their county.

Check with your County Tax Assessor to see the limits for your county and learn when the tax forms are due.