Where it is easy to get around on foot, bike, bus or car, and everyone has a local business nearby where they can shop, eat and gather.

Where everyone has the opportunity to access green space to support healthy habits and recreation.

Where there is an affordable housing option for every resident at every stage of life.

Where we are prepared for the effects of climate change, and our continued growth is smart and sustainable, with limited impact on our precious resources.

Where there is a strong and diverse workforce with great job opportunities.

Where city government is transparent, strategic, and forward-thinking in decision making.

Where all residents are invited to participate in our community decisions, no matter their economic status or preferred language.
