

Benefits education that feels like Instagram

Airbo is a simpler, better way to teach employees about benefits. Paid for by your vendors.

91% Of employees value their benefits more because of Airbo.

3X Participation relative to live events.

10% Of the cost of working with a consultant.

Trusted by more than 400 benefits teams

Airbo makes navigating the benefits ecosystem simple.

Employees click a link in a text or email or scan a QR code, get useful information, and take action in seconds.

Airbo works on any device, in 40+ languages, with no sign-in and no app to download.

You tell us about your benefits. We take it from there.

Airbo assembles content based on your benefits, vendors and goals, and priorities for your approval.

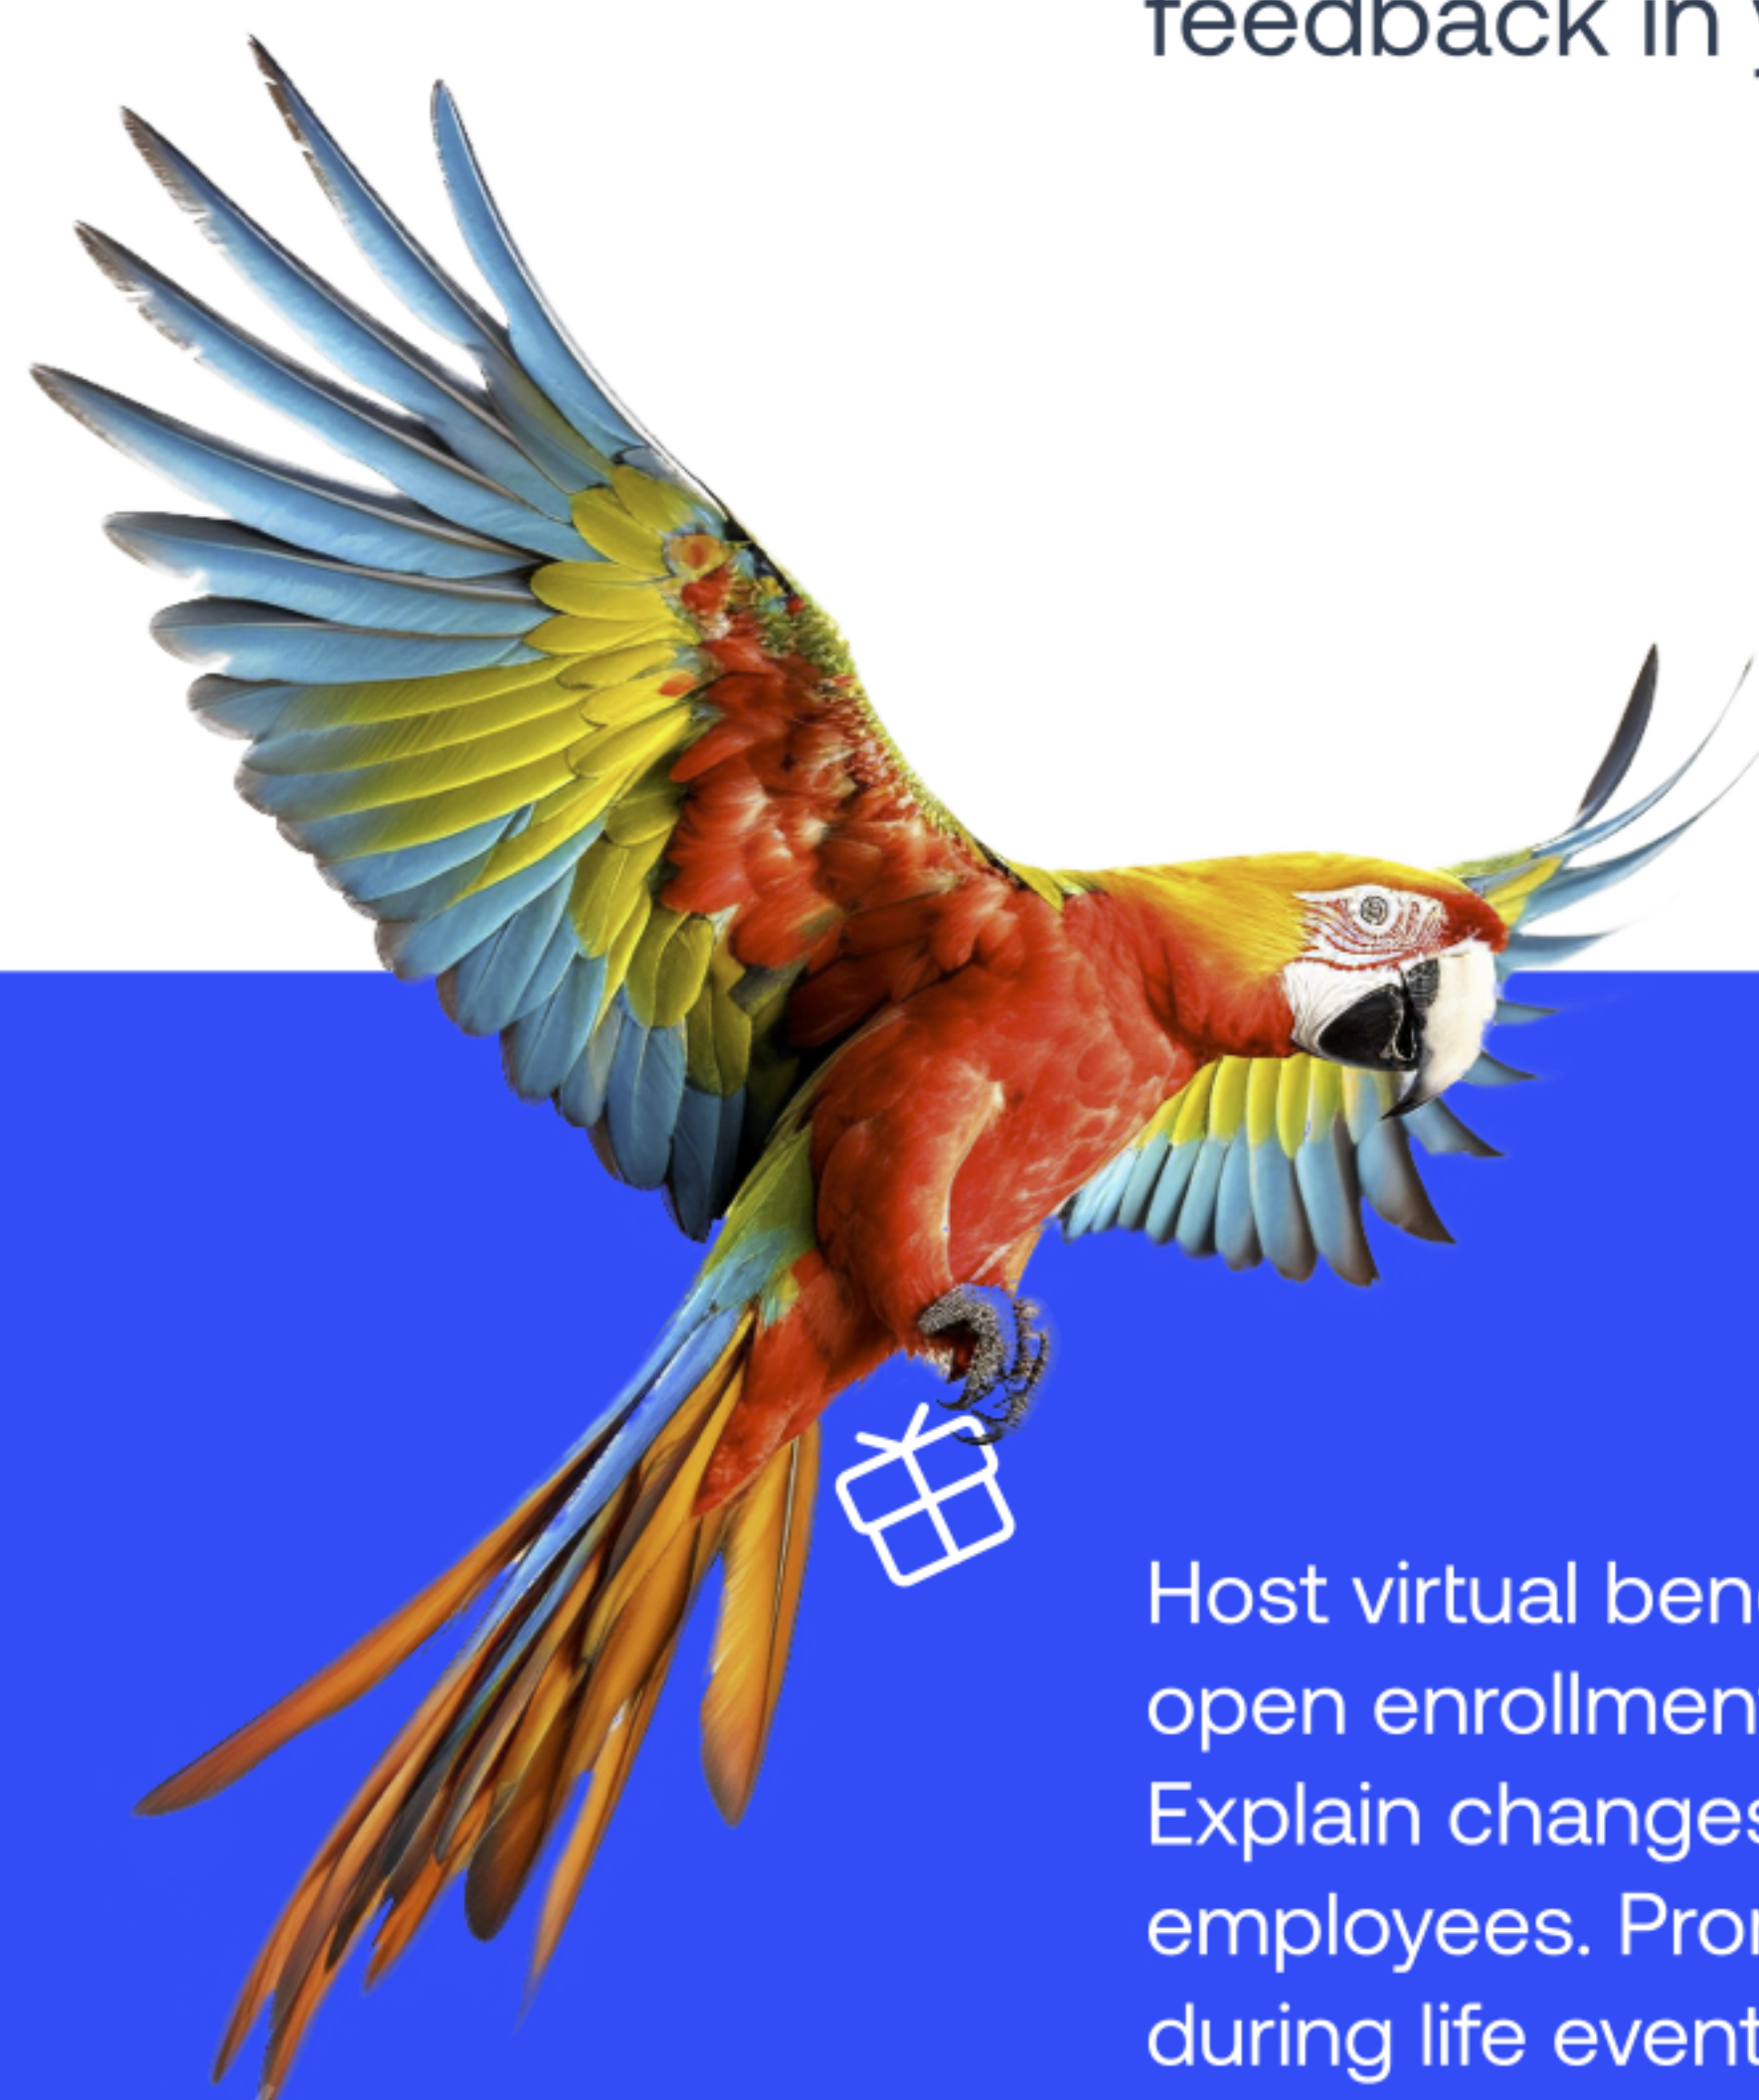

Fun, engaging Instagram-style campaigns educate and guide employees. You get immediate feedback in your Airbo dashboard.

Airbo is designed to be easy, affordable, and effective.

We'll work with your broker to access funding from vendors to pay for Airbo.

Tell us about your benefits and population and we'll have you up and running in two weeks.
