Our Story

Pub Quiz: Thursdays

Live Music: Fridays, Saturdays, Sundays

The Newsroom has a story to tell. Once home to one of Edinburgh's first Newsagents, our site has deep roots in the city's print and publishing history. Inspired by that legacy, we became The Newsroom in the early 2000s – a nod to the past, with a fresh modern twist.

Today we are all about great food, creative cocktails, and a relaxed vibe, with weekly cash prize quizzes and live music.

Join us every Friday & Saturday from 9pm to 1am, and Sunday afternoons from 3pm, for live music that sets the perfect soundtrack to your weekend.

Fun Fact: The world's first commercially successful, modern non-alcoholic beer was Clausthaler, launched by Germany's Binding Brewery in 1979, pioneering the "Controlled Fermentation" method to create a full-flavoured brew with under 0.5% ABV, revolutionizing the market that had previously relied on bland "near beers" or post-production alcohol removal.
