Have you looked at your pet's teeth lately?

Dental disease is common, but many pets continue eating and behaving normally even when they're in pain. Whether you've noticed one sign or none at all, a dental check is the best way to keep your pet's mouth healthy.

Try our 10-Second Dental Check Could your pet have any of these signs?

- Bad breath
- Yellow or brown tartar build-up
- Difficulty eating or chewing
- Red or swollen gums
- Pawing at the mouth
- Drooling food
- Drooling

Spot any of
