

An Introduction to AI

A webinar series for the whole school team

AI is rapidly changing the educational landscape, offering powerful ways to reduce workload and enhance productivity. London South Learning Partnership is pleased to offer three targeted webinars designed to give school staff practical hands-on skills using the latest AI tools.

Sessions are £55 per person per session. Register through the links below.

An Introduction to Microsoft Copilot: Getting the most out of Microsoft's AI for planning, resources and organisation

Date: Tues 17th March
Time: 3:45 pm – 4:45 pm
Audience: Teachers and School Leaders

Sign up here!

AI for School Administrators Streamlining communication, data organisation, and daily office tasks

Date: Tues 17th March
Time: 10:00 – 11:00am
Audience: School Administrative Teams

Sign up here!

An Introduction to Google Gemini: Getting the most out of Google's AI for planning, resources and organisation

Date: Tues 24th March
Time: 3:45 pm – 4:45 pm
Audience: Teachers and School Leaders

Sign up here!

