

HEADTEACHERS' NOTICEBOARD AND TASK LIST

Friday 11 September

1. Following on from last term's MindSpark presentation on 4 July: Belinda Edlington (the director) is happy to book in short online calls with anyone who wants to 'bring a deeper understanding of executive functioning to their school.'

ACTION

- Let Sophy know if you want to explore this further

2. For Secondary HTs: Power the Fight are chasing a response to their current proposal. Bermondsey has submitted theirs, so if CED and CND could send their responses over that'd be really helpful.

ACTION CED & CND

- Complete PTF's table and return to Sophy.

3. LSTSH – Hub survey: To help us continually improve our practice and ensure we are supporting our schools in the best way possible, we would be grateful for your feedback. Please do take a few minutes to complete our annual Hub satisfaction survey.

- Complete the survey (link included)

4. Diverse Leaders Network Evening: the third instalment of this increasingly popular annual event, hosted in partnership with Leathersellers' Hall, is taking place on Tuesday 10 November, 5-8pm. This evening will bring together our community to connect, share experiences, and discuss the future of inclusive leadership in education. The evening will feature an in conversation with Afua Hagan. Afua is an award-winning journalist, broadcaster and leading voice on diversity, inclusion and representation in the UK media. This will be followed by a panel discussion with several experienced school leaders and an opportunity to network over food and drinks. The event is free to attend, but spaces are limited – 70 had signed up by yesterday morning and there's space for 120.. Also attached is the flyer for circulation.

- Please share these details within your schools – print out the flyer and add it to your internal and external newsletters – and if you're able to attend yourself, sign up here: <https://forms.gle/EiCozHhSkHtbSRqK9>,

5. London South Learning Partnership: the CPD booklet will be circulated with this noticeboard; again, please distribute this and make sure you book yourself in for the sessions that interest you.

- As above, please share this with your internal and external school communities

6. Headteacher Network: as above. The flyer will be shared with you and added to the Headteachers' Hub on Your Charter.

ACTION

- Please attend as many of the webinars as possible
