Join Us

Embark on a transformative journey to the with “Antaryatra: The Inner Journey.” This retreat offers a sacred space to connect deeply with your inner self. Beyond the practice of yoga, we will explore meditation, yoga philosophy, Ayurveda, and the soulful practices of mantra, bhajan, and kirtan. Join us for this profound opportunity to dive into self-discovery and spiritual growth amidst nature’s serene beauty.

Seminar room

Step into a serene and luminous seminar room designed to support presence, harmony, and connection with nature. The room's unique octagonal shape and Feng Shui-inspired architecture create a balanced, grounding energy for practice and gatherings. Large windows flood the space with natural light and open it to the powerful landscape surrounding it, blurring the boundary between indoors and outdoors. With a comfortable sprung floor and a flexible layout, the space invites movement, stillness, and creativity — while the adjoining terrace allows practices or moments of rest to extend seamlessly into nature.

TEMPLE OF UNITY

Welcomes everyone, regardless of spiritual background. Since 1982, the Temple, Kutia, and Dhuni have served as spaces for worship, meditation, and ritual. Here, meditations, bhajans, and kirtans embrace universal spirituality, uniting all paths. Feel free to visit anytime for your personal reflection and for your personal meditation practice.

Retreat Stay

Nestled at 1,100 meters above sea level, this serene sanctuary is enveloped by the gentle embrace of nature and the tranquil silence of the mountains. Immerse yourself in a journey of spirituality and inner exploration, as the beauty of the surrounding landscape nourishes your soul.

Activities

Your Yoga Guides

You will be guided by three experienced yoga teachers, Noopur, Viresh, and Ivan, from Lausanne & Vevey - who bring many years of practice and expertise in teaching yoga.

Viresh is a dedicated yoga instructor from Karnataka, India, rooted in the depth and authenticity of traditional Indian yoga. He began his yoga journey at a young age and taught in India and Nepal before settling in Vevey in 2022, where he co-founded Yogic Spirits. Specializing in Traditional Yoga, he is currently pursuing both a Master's and a PhD in Yoga. Viresh is also a passionate cook, sharing Ayurvedic and yogic Indian cuisine as an extension of his teachings.

Born in India and inspired by her yoga guru grandfather, Noopur began practicing yoga at a young age. Now based in Switzerland, she shares the transformative power of yoga with students of all levels, committed to the philosophy of 'Yoga for everyone.' Noopur guides her students on a journey of physical, mental, and spiritual well-being through Hatha yoga, Vinyasa, Pranayama, and Prenatal yoga, helping them experience the profound, life-changing benefits of the practice.

Ivan is a dedicated yoga instructor with a deep love for yoga philosophy and history, which he weaves into his teaching with clarity and care. He is currently studying South Asian Studies at the University of Lausanne (UNIL), focusing on Sanskrit, Hindi, Buddhism, and Hinduism, and grounding his classes in the cultural and spiritual roots of yoga. Teaching Yin and Soft Yoga, he offers mindful practices for all levels, and invite students to explore yoga beyond the physical practice.

Organic Vegetarian Food

The kitchen team is dedicated and passionate about preparing a generous buffet for every meal, with a carefully curated selection of dishes. Great emphasis is placed on thoughtfully prepared organic vegetarian cuisine, using herbs and vegetables from the on-site permaculture garden, depending on the season and availability.

A variety of teas is available for guests throughout the day and evening. Special dietary needs can be accommodated. The cozy self-service bar offers an organic selection of ice cream, chocolate, and other treats, available at any time for snacks.

The water from all taps in the building is drinkable and comes from the retreat's own spring, known for its excellent water quality.
