

Now Hiring: Board-Certified Music Therapist – Home Health (Special Needs Population)

Location: Houston, Texas – Travel required within service area

Schedule: Full-time / Part-time / PRN (flexible options available)

Salary: Competitive, based on experience + mileage reimbursement

About Us:

At Dunn's Therapies, we believe in the healing power of music. We provide compassionate, client-centered home health services tailored to individuals with developmental, physical, and cognitive challenges. Our interdisciplinary team is passionate about improving lives—and we're looking for a Board-Certified Music Therapist to join us in making a difference.

Position Summary:

As a Music Therapist, you will deliver individualized and group music therapy services in clients' homes, primarily serving children and adults with special needs (e.g., autism spectrum disorder, cerebral palsy, Down syndrome, sensory processing disorders, and other developmental or neurological conditions). You'll collaborate with families, caregivers, and our healthcare team to foster communication, motor skills, emotional regulation, and overall well-being through music.

Responsibilities:

- Assess client needs and develop individualized music therapy treatment plans
- Deliver one-on-one music therapy sessions in clients' homes
- Use evidence-based music interventions (singing, instrument playing, movement, songwriting, etc.) to support therapeutic goals
- Document progress and maintain accurate clinical records

Qualifications:

- Board Certification (MT-BC) required
- Bachelor's or master's degree in music therapy from an AMTA-approved program
- Experience in home health or community-based settings a plus
- Valid driver's license and reliable transportation required
- CPR certification (or willingness to obtain prior to hire)
- Strong communication and organizational skills
- Compassionate, flexible, and able to work independently

We Offer:

- Flexible scheduling
- Competitive compensation
- Supportive interdisciplinary team
- Opportunities for professional development
- Meaningful work that changes lives every day
