* Senior exams may also be scheduled during reading day as necessary

Per the Academic Catalog, Courses must hold an oral or written examination during the week of final examinations. Students are required to sit for their final exams during the scheduled periods unless the student has three exams scheduled within a 24-hour period or the exam is proctored by the Adaptive Services Office.

During the spring term, seniors may be asked to take their exam earlier due to graduation processing that must take place the Monday before Commencement.
