FROM OUR PASTOR'S HEART

Dear Faith Family,

There are so many wonderful truths given to us in the pages of the Bible. Here, we learn about the God who made us and the depth of His love for us. It is from Scripture the we discover the redeeming grace of God and the many blessed ways He desires to work in our lives.

The thought that He loves us enough to save us is a wonderful truth set forth in Scripture. That alone is more than any of us deserve, but there is more. Along with His love demonstrated to save us, the Lord loves us so much that He calls us, blesses us, and allows us the privilege of serving Him. Before Jesus ascended into heaven, He gave these parting words to the disciples. In Acts 1:8 Jesus said, “But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be witnesses to Me in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth.”

Our Lord said to those first eleven and by extension to all believers across all time, I have saved you and give you the opportunity and responsibility of serving me as witnesses. Think about it! The very God of heaven, the Maker of the ends of the earth has called us to Himself and allowed us the privilege of serving as witnesses to the world.

During this Faith On Mission season, I not only want to stress the need for giving to missions, but even more, I want to stress to us the importance of living on mission. Our world is lost. It is decaying in the rot of sin, and we have the blessed message of the Gospel. It gives hope, and the Gospel points a clear path to a life of meaning and an eternity of peace and paradise with the Lord. Let us be people who share it regularly.

If you find it difficult to share the Gospel, if you get scared or intimidated, it will help you to join another person for accountability. Set a time where you can meet with them and you go together to share the Gospel. Determine who you will see and when. Then, GO! If that sounds like too much for you, join our Saturate Bartlett Team. They have done the work of setting the time and the place. All you have to do is show up with a heart willing to go, and you will be paired with someone who will walk with you. Let us grow in this privilege and responsibility of being witnesses. It is such a vital part of GROWING IN FAITH.

In Christ, Pastor Lee
