Student Ministry Summer Help

As we head into an incredibly meaningful season of ministry this summer, we're reminded again how much these weeks depend on the support, generosity, and willingness of our church family to step in and help carry the load. There are several practical needs behind the scenes in the coming weeks, and whether you're a student family or simply someone who loves seeing the next generation discipled well, we would genuinely be grateful for anyone willing to help serve, support, or encourage in any way possible.

Let's Connect!

Are you new at Faith? Are you looking for some connections here? We have various connection classes, community groups, and discipleship groups available for you to check out. Please stop by our Welcome Center or call our Discipleship Office at 901-531-6839 for more information.

FROM OUR PASTOR'S HEART

Dear Faith Family,

I want to encourage you through these short bulletin letters to cultivate a habit of engaging in private worship. While we are commanded to corporately gather and worship, and I love those times with my church family, our Lord also calls us to join Him in private moments of worship. Jesus embodied this in His earthly life and ministry. In Mark's Gospel, Jesus took time to get away from the crowds and be alone with His Father. Mark 1:35 says, "Now in the morning, having risen a long while before daylight, He went out and departed to a solitary place; and there He prayed."

Here, we have the example of God the Son getting alone to spend time with God the Father. Based on our Lord's action, let me ask you a question. Do you have a healthy habit of getting alone to worship? You may call it your quiet time, or your devotional time. No matter what you call it, do you have it? If you do, praise the Lord! If you don't, let me encourage you that spending time with the Lord sets the rest of your time in the right perspective.

In the good times, private worship gives you the space to soak in the goodness that God is pouring out to you. When things are tough, private worship provides you with the space to focus on the unchangeable promises of God. You do yourself a great favor when you carve out space for private worship. Those quiet moments allow space for the Holy Spirit to drown out the noise, remove the spiritual clutter, and clean those ungodly spots and spaces in your heart.

So, make it a point beginning today to go off by yourself, whether early in the morning or at some point before bedtime, to be alone with the Lord and worship Him. This is a healthy spiritual habit. It will bless you individually and help you live out your faith corporately. Private moments of worship are a vital piece of GROWING IN FAITH!

In Christ,

Pastor Lee
