FROM OUR PASTOR'S HEART

Dear Faith Family,

I want to take a moment today to continue pushing this idea of reaching our Neighbors and the Nations with the Gospel. This is the theme of our Faith On Mission initiative this year. We want to be used by the Lord God to make His name and His Gospel known to the lost world. There is no greater work to be done.

As you and I think about having been entrusted with the Gospel, that is such a wonderful blessing and responsibility. Our Lord Jesus gave us the Gospel not simply to hold onto it selfishly, but we are given the Gospel to grow in it and share it. Our Lord specifically told the disciples in Acts 1:8, "But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be witnesses to Me in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth." It is from these verses that we drew this emphasis of Neighbors and Nations.

For the first disciples, Jerusalem and Judea were their immediate neighbors. These were the people who lived near them, did business in the same local food markets, and had similar life stations. Jesus told the disciples to reach their neighbors in Jerusalem and Judea.

The mission did not stop there as Jesus went on to tell them to reach Samaria. At this point, the scope of the mission widens. The Samaritans are similar to the Jews in some way and starkly different in others. Reaching the Samaritans meant reaching out to people farther away, people that had cultural differences, and people who had somewhat strained interactions with the Jewish people. It would take greater intentionality and sensitivity to God's direction for the disciples to reach Samaria.

Think of who God may be calling you to reach in light of the example of these men in our text. Where might your Samaria be? Who are your Samaritans? Who do you believe to be lost, and how are your prayers being offered up to the Lord for them? Reaching people who are not just like you brings it share of difficulties, but we serve the God who is greater than all the differences. From that place of confidence in His power to save, let us press on to reach our Neighbors and the Nations with the Gospel. This is a God-given assignment on this journey of GROWING IN FAITH

In Christ
