FROM OUR PASTOR'S HEART

Dear Faith Family,

I want to focus my writings this month on the manifold reasons we have to thank the Lord. This is the month in which we celebrate Thanksgiving Day, and I have been convinced for a long time that for the Christian every day is a day of thanksgiving. As such, I'd like to offer you some thoughts from Scripture to stir your heart to give thanks and adoration to the Lord.

In Psalm 104, the writer opens with a command to his own soul. Consider what he writes in Psalm 104:1–2, "Bless the Lord, O my soul! O Lord my God, You are very great: You are clothed with honor and majesty, Who cover Yourself with light as with a garment, Who stretch out the heavens like a curtain." The term bless means to take a position on the knees in adoration to the one before whom you bow. This writer commands, stirs his soul to give praise to the Lord God. In a similar way, we should stir our souls to thanksgiving and praise.

The question then rises; how do we do that? I believe the answer is supplied here in the text. Our author made a statement about God, and that is what he used to stir His soul to worship and thanks. His consideration of the greatness of God, His own Lord, was what drew him into thanksgiving. I want to encourage you to think at length about the reality that Jesus Christ has drawn you, as a Christian, into a personal relationship where you are blessed to know the Lord God and be known by Him. This great God who is inexhaustible is the God every Christian knows personally. That's a reason to give Him thanks and praise.

Our author went on to ponder a specific expression of the Lord's greatness; His glory. The psalmist pens, "You are clothed with honor and majesty, Who cover Yourself with light as with a garment, Who stretch out the heavens like a curtain." This great God who brings us into a personal relationship through Jesus Christ is the same God who has clothed Himself in honor and majesty. The Lord God wears these attributes like a garment. He covers himself with light in the same way. That light may represent his perfection. He is without any blemish or spot. His power is unmatched. The Lord God has stretched out the heavens like a curtain. The sky that we look upon in wonder is stretched out by the loving, strong arm of our Lord, and we know Him. All these are reasons to thank Him and give Him worship. The discipline of thanksgiving is a wonderful point of focus in this season as we continue on this journey of GROWING IN FAITH!

Connection Group Leaders Special Luncheon - Sunday, December 6th

Every leader of our connection classes, community groups, and discipleship groups is invited to attend this event from 12:15 to 1:30 PM in the Gym. Together, we will share and celebrate what the Lord does in and through our connection groups in 2026. Childcare will be available by RSVP only. Please contact our Discipleship office for more information.

MyFaith Podcast - Now Available on Apple!

This week on the MyFaith podcast, we are joined by Mike and Debbie Day. Listen to hear our conversation on parenting adult children and grandparenting!

MISSIONS MINISTRY

Women on Mission

WOM are in need of T-shirts (old or new, with no side seams) for making jump ropes for the children who receive the Operation Christmas Child shoeboxes. Please place them in the Operation Christmas Child box in the hallway just outside the lobby. Operation Christmas Child Shoeboxes are available and will need to be returned by Sunday, November 8th.

Operation Christmas Child Packing Party - November 14, from 9:00am-1:00pm

We plan to pack 2000 gospel opportunities (shoeboxes) to share the love of Christ with children around the world. Bring your family and friends. You will be blessed to see all ages serving the Lord together in one room. All the items that go in the box will be provided; we just need hands to pack the boxes. You will not want to miss it!

WOM Speaker

You are invited to join us, Tuesday, November 10th at 10:00 am to hear from our featured speakers: Lauren Winfield, Zenaida Halbert and Mary Lea Tucker. Lauren sings in the Faith Choir, Zenaida is involved with the Generational Discipleship Ministry and Mary Lea plays in the Faith Orchestra and teaches a Connection Class. They will talk about their mission trip to Cuiaba, Brazil and share team and personal experiences of sharing the gospel. Come out and hear from them and stay for a delicious lunch and fellowship time.
