Democratic Innovation Mock Panel

Imagine you are putting together a panel about innovations in democracy. Who would you invite and why? What would each speaker bring to the table? Explain your choices and draft a list of questions that you would ask, anticipating the kinds of arguments each panelist would make through supplementary research.