

Design your own pro-democratic tech

In this episode of Group Chat, you heard how different technological tools can enhance democratic engagement. This assignment asks you to get creative and design your own technological tool or platform to facilitate civic debate. Describe in detail the features it would have and how it would avoid the pitfalls of some of our existing social media platforms or tools.