

CONSERVATIVE STRATEGY

The PVG Conservative Strategy holds approximately 40% of the portfolio in stocks and equity ETFs and 60% in bond ETFs, bonds and bond like equities. Bonds are generally less risky than equities. This allocation is for a conservative investor that also wants some growth potential. The allocation in equities can range from 0% to approximately 50% and bonds from 0% to 100% under unusual circumstances. The equity holdings will generally be well diversified in large-cap, mid-cap, small-cap, and international equities. The bond holdings will also be generally well diversified. Alternatives may be implemented into the portfolio. The goal of the strategy is to also provide an attractive stream of income.
