

REDEVELOPMENT OPPORTUNITY CENTRAL NEWPORT

- Rare opportunity for redevelopment/new build opportunity in central Newport, currently let to Blacks (owned by JD Sports PLC) representing a very strong covenant & reversionary rent
- Proposed new ground floor shop runs to approx. 97.2m<sup>2</sup> (1,046 ft<sup>2</sup>) with the proposed residential area running to circa 378m<sup>2</sup> (4,068ft<sup>2</sup>)
- Pre application has been submitted with a favourable response to create a new ground floor retail space and conversion of area to the rear for one flat and a further five flats over
- Offers invited in the region of £275,000 for the freehold opportunity

LOCATION

Located in Newport High Street, placing the development in easy reach for all that Newport has to offer from shopping, restaurants and transport links etc. It benefits from being in close proximity to St Thomas Square. Other prominent retailers are in close proximity such as Holland & Barrett, Trespass, Boots, EE, Waterstones and Clinton Cards along with several major banks. The immediate population of Newport is around 25,000 with a catchment of around 60,000 when operating as the comparison-shopping centre for the entire Island population of around 140,000. Continued investment in the town ensures its importance as a retail and leisure centre.

DESCRIPTION

The shop is currently let to Blacks (owned by JD Sports PLC), which represents a very strong covenant and revisionary rent.

A planning pre-application has been put forward to create six flats and re-model the ground floor shop of 28 High Street, Newport. A pre-application was submitted to the Isle of Wight Council which gained a favourable response subject to various consents. A copy of this pre-application can be e-mailed to any interested party along with the supporting plans etc. Please see some floor plans overleaf. The proposal is for three x 2-bedroom units and three x 1-bedroom unit ranging from 46m<sup>2</sup> to 100m<sup>2</sup> giving an approximate gross internal area of 378m<sup>2</sup> (4,068ft<sup>2</sup>). On top of this, there is a re-modelling of the shop which runs to approximate 97m<sup>2</sup> (1044ft<sup>2</sup>) net. On paper the shop using recent comparables could achieve a rent of circa. £11,000 per annum once finished to a shell specification.
