Investment Strategy
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The investment policy of this Fund is to purchase fixed or floating rate investment grade (rated, at time of purchase, BBB- to AAA by S&P or Fitch or Baa3 to Aaa by Moody's) instruments including bonds, debt securities and other instruments issued or guaranteed by governmental, quasi-governmental, governmental agency and instrumentality, supranational agency and corporate issuers predominately in developed countries such as, without limitation, commercial paper, bank obligations, repurchase agreements, corporate and government debt obligations and obligations of other issuers having investment grade ratings. The Fund may also invest in the aforementioned instruments with a short-term credit rating equivalent to the credit ratings mentioned above and/or unrated instruments which the Investment Manager deems to be of a similar quality. In the event of a downgrade of the above mentioned instruments below investment grade, the Investment Manager will determine, in its discretion, whether the Fund should continue to hold or dispose of such instrument in consideration of the best interests of the Fund. The Fund may increase its allocation to lower credit quality securities within the universe of investment grade debt obligations in which the Fund invests, when the Investment Manager believes the expected credit risk premium warrants such investments. However, the Fund may decrease its allocation to lower credit quality securities within the universe of investment grade debt obligations in which the Fund invests, when the Investment Manager believes the expected premium is not sufficient, in its opinion, to warrant the greater risk in such investment. The Fund primarily invests in securities that mature within (5) five years from the date of settlement of purchase and normally maintains an average portfolio duration of (3) three years or less. The Fund may acquire financial derivative instruments for efficient portfolio management purposes. The Fund may enter into forward foreign currency contracts so as to hedge against fluctuations in currency exchange rates. It is not the Fund's current intention to utilise any derivative instruments other than futures and forward foreign currency contracts. The Fund may use repurchase agreements for efficient portfolio management purposes. 	Refer to Appendix 2 of the Singapore Prospectus and the section headed "Investment Objectives and Policies" of the Ireland Prospectus for further information on the investment strategy of the product.

KEY RISKS
WHAT ARE THE KEY RISKS OF THIS INVESTMENT? The value of the product and its dividends or coupons (if any) may rise or fall. An investment in the Fund is meant to produce returns over the long term. You should not expect to obtain short term gains from such an investment. You should consider the risks of investing in the Fund, which may cause you to lose some or all of your investment.	Refer to paragraph 6 "Risks" of the Singapore Prospectus and the section headed "Special Considerations and Risk Factors" of the Ireland Prospectus for further information on risks of the product.

Market and Credit Risks
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You are exposed to market risk. The investments of the Fund are subject to normal market fluctuations and the risks inherent in investment in local and international securities markets and there can be no assurances that appreciation or preservation will occur. You are exposed to interest rate risk. Fixed income securities are subject to interest rate risk because the prices of fixed income securities tend to move in the opposite direction of interest rates. When interest rates rise, fixed income security prices generally fall. When interest rates fall, fixed income security prices generally rise. You are exposed to foreign exchange risk. Where the Fund engages in foreign exchange transactions which alter the currency exposure characteristics of its investments the performance of the Fund may be strongly influenced by movements in exchange rates as currency positions held by the Fund may not correspond with the securities positions held. The NAV per Share of the Fund will be computed in its Base Currency whereas the investments held for the account of the Fund may be acquired in other currencies. The Fund's NAV may change significantly when such other currencies strengthen or weaken against the Base Currency. The Investment Manager implements a passive hedging strategy to hedge the foreign currency exposure. You are exposed to credit risk. The Fund will have a credit risk on the issuer of debt securities in which it invests which will vary depending on the issuer's ability or willingness to make principal and interest payments on the obligation. A downgrade to an issuer's credit rating or a perceived change in the issuer's financial strength may affect a security's value, and therefore, impact the Fund's performance. The Fund will also have a credit risk on the parties with which it trades.
Liquidity Risks
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Fund is not listed in Singapore and there is no secondary market for its Shares. You can only redeem your investment on a Dealing Day through the Fund. You are exposed to liquidity risk. Liquidity risk exists when particular portfolio investments are difficult to purchase or sell. To the extent that the Fund holds illiquid investments, the Fund's performance may be reduced due to an inability to sell the investments at opportune prices or times.
Product-Specific Risks
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> You are exposed to derivatives risk. The Fund may use futures, forward currency contracts, options and swaps for efficient portfolio management purposes including for hedging against market movements, currency exchange or interest rate risks or otherwise. The Investment Manager's ability to use these strategies may be limited by market conditions, regulatory limits, legal risk, where the enforceability of a financial derivative instrument contract may be an issue, settlement risk and tax considerations. Hedging with derivatives may increase expenses, and there is no guarantee that a hedging strategy will work. While hedging can reduce or eliminate losses, it can also reduce or eliminate gains or cause losses if the market moves in a manner different from that anticipated by the Fund or if the cost of the derivative outweighs the benefit of the hedge.
