

CANADIAN EDUCATIONAL INNOVATION ACHIEVEMENTS

Student Development Alignment System (SDAS)

A research-based student development and potential assessment framework designed to align learning pathways, talent development and future success.

World's Best School Prize 2026 Top 10 Finalist – Innovation Category

Developed and implemented by Canada Royal Arts High School (Canada) Vancouver, British Columbia

Institution Overview

- Independent Canadian Innovation School
- 9 Years of Educational Research & Practice
- Developer of the Student Development Alignment System (SDAS)

Key Measurable Outcomes

- Student Outcomes
98+ Awards Received
- Scholarships
CAD $4.24M Combined Scholarship Offers
- University Admissions
110+ Offers from Canadian and International Universities

International Recognition

- Top 10 Finalist – World's Best School Prize
- Innovation Category
- Recognized as a Top 10 Finalist for the World's Best School Prize.
- SDAS technology has evolved through 9 years of practice and 3 generations of platform development.

Educational Impact

- Supports student wellbeing and talent development
- Enhances educational equity
- Strengthens future workforce readiness
- Developed and validated through 9 years of practice

Prepared for Government, Education and Community Leaders
Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada