

Assured Tenancy

Easy Read Guide

Contents

Introduction	4
Your responsibilities inside your home	5
Your responsibilities in your garden/driveway	8
Your responsibilities in communal areas	10
Your responsibilities in the wider community	12
Your other obligations	12
Our obligations	14

Assured Tenancy

Easy Read Guide

This guide helps you understand your tenancy agreement.

Your tenancy agreement contains the rules that you must follow in your new home.

If your home is a house you may have outside areas that are also yours (such as gardens, driveways, and garages).

If your home is a flat you may also have the use of communal areas. Communal areas are areas that you share with others who live near you. This could include shared gardens, car parks, or hallways or stairwells that your neighbours also use.

This guide tells you what rules you must follow:

- Inside your home;
- In any gardens or outside areas;
- In any communal areas;
- In the wider community.

Your responsibilities inside your home

Behaviour

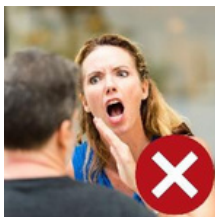

You must not behave in a way which could annoy your neighbours. This could include:

- Playing loud music at night or having the volume of a television turned up too loud
- Shouting or using bad language
- Banging on walls or banging doors
- Using rude, abusive, or racist language
- towards them

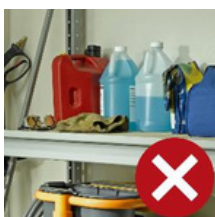

You must not commit criminal offences in your home

You must not be rude or abusive to neighbours or our employees or contractors

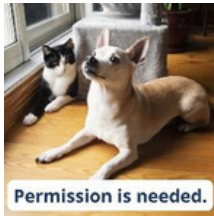

You are responsible for the behaviour of your visitors and anyone else in your home and must make sure that they also follow these rules

You must not keep any dangerous items like petrol in your home

Pets

You can only have a pet in your home with our permission

You can have a bird in a cage or a fish in a fish tank without our permission

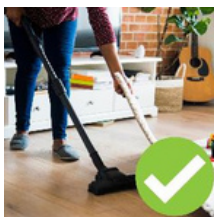

You do not need our permission to keep a registered assistance dog at your home

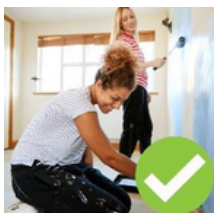

Condition

You must not damage your home

You must keep the inside of your home clean and tidy

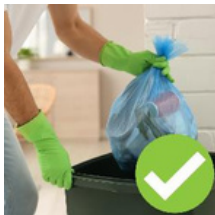

You are responsible for redecorating the inside of your home

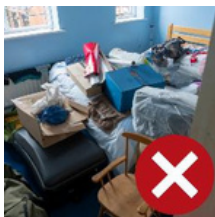

You are also responsible for carrying out minor repairs to your home

We are responsible for maintaining the plumbing, heating system, walls, ceilings, and roofs – you must report any damage to these areas to us

You must get rid of rubbish in a proper manner (i.e. by putting it in a bin which is regularly emptied)

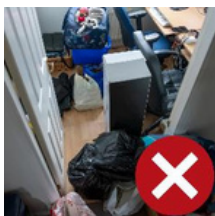

You must not keep so many items in your home so that it could cause damage to your home

Access

You must let our employees or contractors into your home – we will usually give you at least 24 hours' notice, but we can give less if it is an emergency

You must ensure that your home is accessible and safe for our employees or contractors when they visit

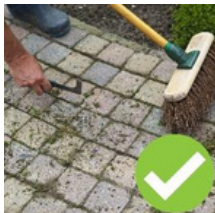

Your responsibilities in your garden/driveway

Behaviour

If you have any outside areas that are yours as part of your tenancy agreement, they are part of your home – you must behave in the same way in the outside areas as you should behave inside your home

Condition

You are responsible for keeping your gardens tidy and well maintained

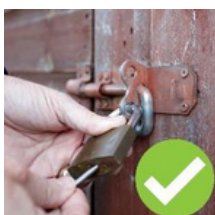

You must ensure that the gardens do not become overgrown

If you notice any damage to the outside walls of your home you should notify us

Access

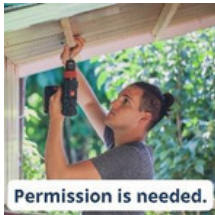

You must let our employees or contractors into the any outside areas or outbuildings (such as sheds or garages) – we will usually give you at least 24 hours' notice, but we can give less if it is an emergency

You must ensure that the outside areas or outbuildings are accessible and safe for our employees or contractors when they visit

Outbuildings

You must not build any new structures (such as sheds or garages) without our permission

Vehicles

You must not park any vehicle longer than 5.25 meters anywhere in your home or on the land surrounding your home (including driveways and gardens)

You must not park vehicles on any grass areas

Building

You must not put a satellite dish up without our permission

Your responsibilities in communal areas

Behaviour

You must behave in the same way in communal areas as you should behave inside your home

Condition

You must not damage any communal areas

You must report any damage to us

Items

You must not store any items in the communal areas

If the communal areas have electric sockets you must not use them

Vehicles

You must not park any vehicle longer than 5.25 meters on any communal land (including driveways and gardens)

You must not park vehicles on any grass areas

You must not block or obstruct any car parks or roads

You must not keep unroadworthy vehicles in any communal car parks

You must only use communal car parking spaces for the parking of vehicles

Your responsibilities in the wider community

Behaviour

When you are outside of your home we expect you, whilst in the local area, to behave in the same way as you would in your home

Vehicles

You must not park vehicles on any grass areas

You must not block or obstruct any car parks or roads

Your other obligations

Money

You must pay the rent every week or make arrangements for it to be paid – we can help you apply for any benefits you may be eligible for

If you live in a flat you may also have to pay a service charge

You are responsible for paying any bills (such as electric, gas, and Council Tax) – if you live in a flat some bills may be included as part of the service charge

Living in your home

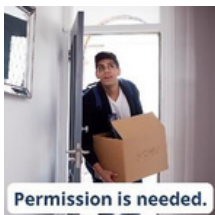

You must not allow more people to live in your home than the tenancy agreement allows

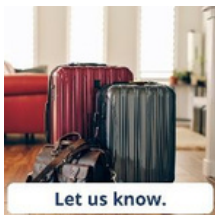

You must live at your home and use it as your only or principal home

You must not rent or give your home to someone else

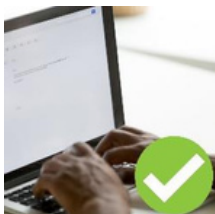

You may have a lodger with our permission

If you are going to be away from your home for more than 4 weeks you must tell us

Moving out

If you no longer want to live in your home you must tell us – you must give us at least 4 weeks' notice in writing

We can only end your tenancy with a court order

Exchange

You may be able to swap your home with someone else

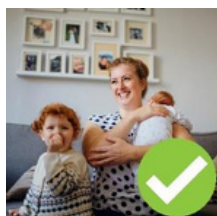

Estate rules

Some estates or blocks of flats may have their own rules which you will need to follow

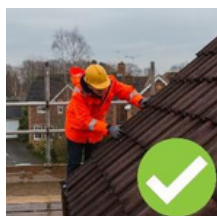

Our obligations

Living in your home

As long as you follow the rules we will allow you to live in your home without us disturbing you (except when we need to access your home or speak to you)

Condition

We will keep the parts of your home that we are responsible for in a good condition

Rooftop Housing Group

70 High Street
Evesham
Worcestershire
WR11 4YD

Tel: 01386 420800

Email: enquiries@rooftopgroup.org

www.rooftopgroup.org