

Press materials available Here

Atlanta Sci-Fi Film Festival Brings Critically Acclaimed 40 ACRES Back to the Big Screen for an Exclusive Showing on October 25th at AMC Phipps Plaza 14.

For Immediate Release

Following a limited theatrical run earlier this summer, the October 25 screening may mark the final opportunity for audiences to experience the film in theaters.

All Access Passes Now Available at - FilmFreeway.com

ATLANTA, GEORGIA - (October 25, 2025) - The Atlanta Sci-Fi Film Festival (ASCIFFF) is thrilled to announce an exclusive closing-night screening of 40 Acres on Saturday, October 25 at 7:00 PM at AMC Phipps Plaza in Buckhead. This high-profile event is reserved only for All Access Festival Pass holders and may be the last opportunity to experience the film on the big screen following its limited theatrical run earlier this summer.

About the film — 40 Acres

Directed by R.T. Thorne and starring Danielle Deadwyler, 40 Acres is a tense, emotionally charged post-apocalyptic drama about land, legacy, and survival.

Synopsis

After a series of plagues and wars leaves society in ruins, the Freemans are surviving — even thriving — on a farm in the middle of nowhere... so long as they repel the occasional raiding party. Former soldier Hailey (Danielle Deadwyler) and her partner Galen (Michael Greyeyes) fled the collapse along with their children, training them to fight (and, yes, kill). But now Hailey's eldest Emanuel (Kataem O'Connor) is a young man, and when he meets a young woman (Milcania Diaz-Rojas) in the forest beyond the fence, his need for human contact could place the whole family in jeopardy.

Critical buzz

At TIFF, critics hailed the film as "the sleeper film of TIFF 2024 ... Deadwyler was stone-cold lethal ... 9.5/10." — The Peach Review. Canadian media called it "incredibly ambitious," praising the film's emotional scope and daring vision.

Event at a glance

- What: Exclusive screening of 40 Acres (All Access Pass holders only)
- When: Saturday, October 25, 2025, at 7:00 PM
- Where: AMC Phipps Plaza 14, Buckhead, Atlanta

Atlanta Sci-fi Film Festival - Exploring New Worlds One Film at a Time!

To stay updated on the latest news and announcements regarding the Atlanta Sci-fi Film Festival Subscribe to our Newsletter or follow their social media channels on Instagram @atlantasci_filmfestival and Facebook @ASCIFFF

For media inquiries, interview requests, please contact Hello@ASCIFFF.com

#Atlantascifilmfestival2025

#ASCIFFF2025

#40Acres