About us

Tallerson Events Company is a woman-owned event planning company based in New York City. We offer assets like photo booths, event decor, custom decor and even catering services; making your event stand out from the rest.

From weddings to corporate events, we've done it all!

Our vision for our company is becoming your one-stop shop. We want to make it easier for our clients to get everything they need to make their event special- all in one place.

With years of hospitality experience running restaurants, bars and festivals, our team knows what it takes to run an event from beginning to end.
