Print NW

Within these pages are the elements and inspiration you need to develop Print NW branded communications. In the following four sections you will be introduced to the tools needed to build our brand, as well as find inspiration through our visual expression.

Consistency and detail are important to maintain as we build and execute our look and feel. The more we look and sound like one unified brand, the more familiar our audience becomes with who we are. And, like our brand, this guide will evolve and change over time as new work is developed.

We are Print NW!

SIGNATURE

Print NW's brand identity is one of our most important assets. Our brand is expressed in how we answer the phone, our interactions with customers, our advertising, and of course our products. Every employee plays a key role in the presentation of our brand identity to our customers and partners. It is each employee's responsibility to ensure that the use of our brand mark and other visual elements always meet Print NW's brand identity standards.
