Testament Readings

Old Testament: Isaiah 61:1-7 NRSVUE

“The spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me because the LORD has anointed me; he has sent me to bring good news to the oppressed, to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives and release to the prisoners, to proclaim the year of the LORD’s favor and the day of vengeance of our God, to comfort all who mourn, to provide for those who mourn in Zion— to give them a garland instead of ashes, the oil of gladness instead of mourning, the mantle of praise instead of a faint spirit. They will be called oaks of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, to display his glory. They shall build up the ancient ruins; they shall raise up the former devastations; they shall repair the ruined cities, the devastations of many generations. Strangers shall stand and feed your flocks; foreigners shall till your land and dress your vines, but you shall be called priests of the LORD; you shall be named ministers of our God; you shall enjoy the wealth of the nations, and in their riches you shall glory. Because their shame was double and dishonor was proclaimed as their lot, therefore in their land they shall possess a double portion; everlasting joy shall be theirs.”

New Testament: Luke 4:16-21 NRSVUE

“When he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, he went to the synagogue on the Sabbath day, as was his custom. He stood up to read, and the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written: “The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to set free those who are oppressed, to proclaim the year of the Lord’s favor.” And he rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him. Then he began to say to them, “Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing.”

EASTER BASKET & NUTRITION BOX DRIVE

WUMC is partnering with Action for Good to support local children and families during Spring Break. Many students rely on school meals, and this outreach helps fill the gap by providing Nutrition Boxes for families and Easter Baskets that bring joy and encouragement to children in our community.

We're collecting food items, snacks, small toys, books, hygiene items, and Easter baskets, basket fillers and treats. Every donation—big or small—helps us care for our neighbors with dignity and love.

Collection runs through March 10 (drop off at church anytime) Assembly Day: March 14 at 9 a.m. in the Fellowship Hall
For questions or to arrange item(s) pick-up or drop-off, contact Kim Farlik — (972) 835-9130

Let's come together to share hope, nourishment, and Christ's love this Easter season.
