11 INT. A CARRIAGE TRAVELING DOWN A ROAD NEAR ST. COLOMBE -
DAY, LATER

THE CLIP CLOP OF HORSE HOOVES, THE CARRIAGE
CREAKING AS IT MAKES ITS WAY ALONG A COBBLESTONE STREET

115 MADAME DE LA CHOUE
Francoise Durand has no means of supporting herself and her six children.

116 JEANNE
Lord, have mercy on them all.

THE COBBLESTONES END AND THE ROAD BECOMES A RUTTED DIRT PATHWAY

117 MADAME DE LA CHOUE
Look at how poorly everyone lives here, Jeanne - these dilapidated houses, the ditches filled with sewage. No wonder there's so much sickness and death!

118 JEANNE
If only there was a way to help all these people, Madame de la Choue.

119 MADAME DE LA CHOUE
At least today we'll try to help the Durands.

120 JEANNE
Yes. The little children are so sweet.

121 MADAME DE LA CHOUE
You have a way of talking to them,
Jeanne. It's... Comforting.

122 JEANNE
I'm glad.

123 MADAME DE LA CHOUE
I appreciate your presence on these visits.

<<< END

124 JEANNE
I'm grateful to come along.
