

013 PHILIPPINE
Who's Bishop Louis Dubourg?

014 MOTHER BARAT
The newly appointed bishop of the entire territory of the Louisiana Purchase. He wants to visit us.

015 PHILIPPINE
Why?

016 MOTHER BARAT
He's inquiring if any of our sisters would like to go there.

017 PHILIPPINE
(heart beating fast)
To the New World?

018 MOTHER BARAT
I know how you feel, Sister Philippine. But I don't think the time is right for us to open a house in a whole new territory.

019 PHILIPPINE
But-

020 MOTHER BARAT
-However, I can't refuse him permission to pay us a visit. That would be rude. Please write back to Bishop Dubourg and tell him he's welcome here any time he's in Paris.

021 PHILIPPINE
(disappointed)
Of course, Mother.

SHE'S ABOUT TO LEAVE, BUT STOPS

Maybe I should tell you something that happened to me last week...

023 MOTHER BARAT
What's that?

024 PHILIPPINE
It was on Holy Thursday, during Eucharistic Adoration. I'm not sure if it was a dream or a vision...

SHE HESITATES

025 MOTHER BARAT

Go ahead, tell me.

026 PHILIPPINE

It was as if I spent the entire night in the New World...carrying the Blessed Sacrament to all parts of the land...

A pause.

(remembering)

It was so real, Mother. I was barefoot and under my feet I could feel the grass as I walked and walked through a wilderness of dense forests and open plains and riverbanks, all the while holding the monstrance close to my chest, sometimes shielding it from wind or rain. And as I walked, native people emerged silently from the trees, watching me with quiet awe - not frightened, but reverent. I felt such peace - deep peace - but I also sensed that I was not only carrying Christ in the sacrament, but bringing Him into hearts that had long awaited his presence...

028 MOTHER BARAT

Oh, Philippine, how beautiful, but-

029 PHILIPPINE

-Then, when I woke, my heart was burning - burning with a certainty that this was my calling: to bring the Eucharist - Christ Himself - to souls in a new land, to -

030 MOTHER BARAT

(breaking in, tenderly)

I know how much you want to be a missionary. And maybe one day it will happen -

031 PHILIPPINE

-One day?

032 MOTHER BARAT

Right now I need you here. With me.
Not in the New World. I'm sure
there will be an opportunity,
but... Just not now. Please Philippine, your abilities - and may I say your friendship - are too precious.

(disappointed, yet again)
Yes, Mother.

INT. MEETING ROOM, SOCIETY OF THE SACRED HEART, PARIS - DAY, SEVERAL WEEKS LATER

034 MOTHER BARAT

Sisters, may I introduce Bishop
Dubourg, who has travelled to us
all the way from Louisiana.

APPLAUSE FROM THE SISTERS

035 BISHOP DUBOURG

Thank you, Sisters. Serving the Lord in the New World is truly an experience I would not trade for anything. I hope many of you in the Society of the Sacred Heart will join me in bringing the Good News of God's love to the Indian population. My fellow priests and I cannot do it alone, Sisters. We desperately need your help to teach them about Jesus. Will some of you make this sacrifice? Is this the moment for the Society of the Sacred Heart to set out for this new frontier?

036 MOTHER BARAT

Bishop Dubourg, we certainly applaud and support your mission.
One day I hope we'll be able to send you the assistance you seek.
But, for now, with the responsibilities we're carrying and
the teaching we're doing, all we can offer you is our prayers. Those you will have, I assure you, most fervently.
