Keep away from Sally Henny-Penny, and from the pig-stye and the Puddle-Ducks.

043 MOPPET, MITTENS & TOM KITTEN
Yes, Mother.

DOOR SWINGS SHUT BEHIND HER.

044 BEATRIX (V.O.)
Moppet and Mittens walked down the garden path unsteadily.

045 MOPPET
I'm not very good at walking on two legs.

046 MITTENS
Neither am I -

047 MOPPET
Especially not when I'm wearing a dress!

048 TOM KITTEN
I can't walk at all.

049 MOPPET
Careful, Mittens -

050 MITTENS
Move out of my way, Moppet - I'm going to trip -

THEY TRIP ON THEIR SKIRTS AND FALL ON THEIR NOSES.

051 BEATRIX (V.O.)
Presently they trod upon their pinafores and fell on their noses!

052 MOPPET
Oh dear, oh dear!

THE KITTENS SCRAMBLE BACK UP.

053 MITTENS
Moppet, you have green grass stains on your white dress!

054 MOPPET
You have them all across your pinafore!

055 MITTENS

Mother won't be pleased.

056 MOPPET

I know. Turn your pinafore around back to front. That will hide the grass stain.

057 MITTENS

That's a great idea. You do it too and it'll hide the stain on your dress!

058 MOPPET

Perfect. And then let's climb up the rockery, and sit on the garden wall.

059 MITTENS

I like that plan.

THE TWO KITTENS WRESTLE WITH THEIR PINAFORES AND ADJUST THEM. THEN THEY HOP UP THE ROCKERY!

060 BEATRIX (V.O.)

They turned their pinafores back to front, and went up the rockery with a skip and a jump! As they did, Moppet's white dress fell down into the road!

061 MOPPET

Oh dear. I suppose I'll get my dress when we get down.

◀◀◀ END

062 MITTENS

Tom. Why don't you come up on the wall?

063 TOM KITTEN

I can't jump in these trousers.

TOM STIFFLY APPROACHES THE ROCKERY, PUSHING THROUGH THE FERNS AT ITS BASE.

064 BEATRIX (V.O.)

Tom Kitten was quite unable to jump when walking upon his hind legs in trousers. He came up the rockery by degrees, breaking the ferns, and shedding buttons right and left.

BUTTONS POP - POP - POP!
