

13 INT. SOUNDBOOTH - CONTINUOUS

110 JIM

You couldn't have gotten a more lively audience?

111 MONSIGNOR BRODERICK

We are lucky we have any audience-

112 MARSHALL

Shh, he's starting-

113 FULTON (ON MONITOR)

Peace be to you.

(pause)

There were two ways I could do this program. One was to write everything out and read it carefully to you. The other was to study, and to meditate, and then to talk out of the fullness of my heart, without notes.

(pause)

I chose the second.

114 JIM

(quietly)

God help us...

NERVOUS CHUCKLES IN THE BOOTH.

115 FULTON (ON MONITOR)

This second method means there will be mistakes and awkward moments. There may even come a point where you wish I had written this out.

116 MARSHALL

You're telling us.

14 INT. STUDIO - CONTINUOUS

117 FULTON

But this method ensures we have a true encounter with one another. Now where to begin?

(pause)

There are two ways of waking up in the morning. One is to say, "Good morning, God!" And the other is to say... "Good God, morning."

THE AUDIENCE LAUGHS.

START>>>

118 FULTON

Many people today wake up with the second. They are suffering from an existential neurosis. The anxiety and problem of living. The desperation to answer the question: What is it all about? Where do I go from here? How do I find it?

≪≪ END

A PAUSE.

119 FULTON

I know what you're thinking: 'He's gonna tell us to get down on our knees and pray to God.' No, I'm not. Not yet. Instead I'm offering two solutions... The first: go out and help your neighbor.

A PAUSE.

120 FULTON

Those who suffer from the anxiety of life, do so, because they live only for themselves. Even unintentionally. Their minds and hearts have been dammed up with all of the stressors of our daily life. The easiest way out of this cycle is to love. Love the people whom you can see.

15 INT. A NEW YORK HOME - CONTINUOUS

SHEEN'S VOICE ON TV. SFX: ADDENDUM 1A.

121 WIFE

Honey, what's that you're watching?

122 HUSBAND

It's some Bishop. It's actually really interesting. Watch with me?

123 WIFE

Bishop? We are not Catholic.

124 HUSBAND

I don't think we have to be...
