119 BERNARD
The Lord is enough for me, Father. His Word is just like oil: it gives light to the eyes, nourishes the body, and soothes pain. He satisfies.

DOOR OPENS. ENTER GERARD AND UNCLE GAUDRY.

120 FATHER
Gerard, Gaudry, you are back from the siege so soon?

121 GERARD
We triumphed, Father. Bernard, are you still set on ruin?

122 BERNARD
(Standing up from the table)
Father, I plan on tying up all my affairs, and when that is done, I am joining Citeaux.

123 UNCLE GAUDRY
Bernard, your words at the camp the other night pierced my heart. The Lord, through you, brought to light things I had not realized before. This newfound zeal which animates me also gives me the courage to leave all to serve an eternal kingdom. Bernard...I'd like to join Clairvaux with you.

124 FATHER
What?

125 GERARD
Uncle Gaudry, you can't be serious.

126 UNCLE GAUDRY
I am prepared to give up my title, everything, to serve the Lord.

127 GERARD
Bernard, your childish fancies of joining a monastery are going to tear our entire family apart!

128 HOMBELINE
Uncle, you'll no longer be a knight?

129 FATHER
Leave all you've ever known to follow Bernard?

130 UNCLE GAUDRY
Listening to Bernard, I realized that though I say my prayers, I have never truly spoken to God. Bernard, when you left camp, I felt this burning thirst to seek God. And in my heart, I felt God ask me to follow Him. And I shall.
