The Richard Stewart Lifelong Learning Certificate

in African American Lutheran History, Theology, & Praxis

This exciting new program features nine different presenters speaking to the various aspects of Lutheranism's place in the story of African American Spiritual Formation as part of the narrative that shaped these United States and her territories.

In the Fall of 2025, the courses are:

✚ September 8 – October 6: The Soil from Which We've Grown – History of African American Lutherans in North America. Instructor: Rev. Dr. James Thomas

✚ October 13 – November 10: Justification by Faith and its Social Implications. Instructor: Rev. Dr. Richard Perry

✚ November 17 – December 15: - Religious Education. Instructor: Rev. Dr. Rhonda James Jones

This project is supported in part by the Conference of International Black Lutherans USA (CIBL-USA).
