

Joining a club on your campus can be a great way to get involved during your time as a student. You'll be able to develop your interests outside of the classroom, meet new friends and maybe even learn something new!

Search for clubs by campus or interest below. If you see a club listed on a different campus that you'd like to start on yours, reach out to your Student Activities office to get started. You may also get involved in your campus' student government.

ICE Radio Club

Did you know? CT State Manchester has its very own radio station right here on campus! Listen to your favorite tunes, catch up on current events and listen to the radio shows of CT State Manchester students, faculty and staff.

Everyone has a voice! 1620AM–ICE Radio, Manchester’s campus radio station, wants to hear yours! Students from all backgrounds and majors join every fall and spring semester for weekly meetings and recording sessions to discuss and plan original shows and podcast ideas, fun on-air contests and promotions and community service opportunities.

Students and faculty/staff learn to produce their own shows and podcasts to broadcast a wide variety of timely topics and personal passions, including favorite music/artists, sports, movies, how to succeed in college, current events/politics, concert reviews, and opportunities in media!

Listen to the podcast on Soundcloud or download RadioFX and listen to the show on 1620AM.
