Seesaw in a nutshell!

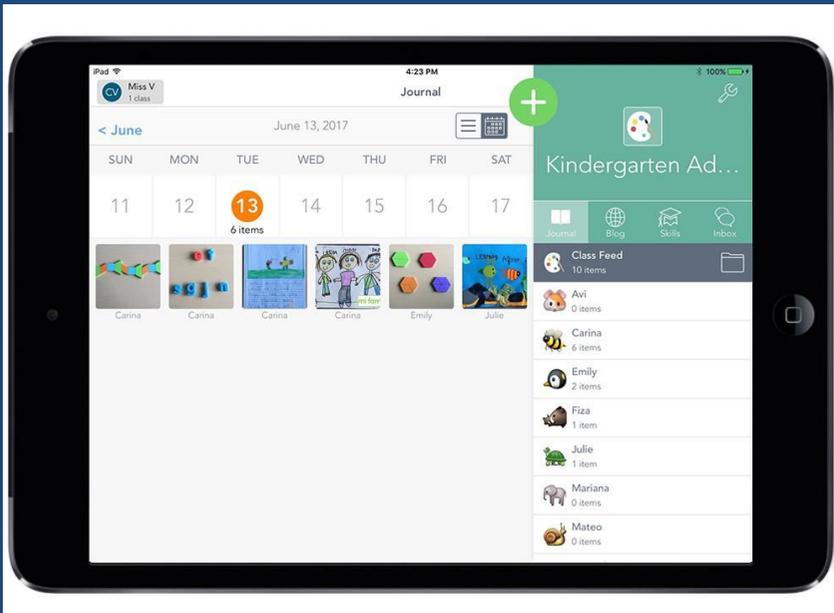

Seesaw is our learning platform for EY and PYP via which we share and complete work such as taking pictures, voice recording, and drawings.

Today's Learning Goals

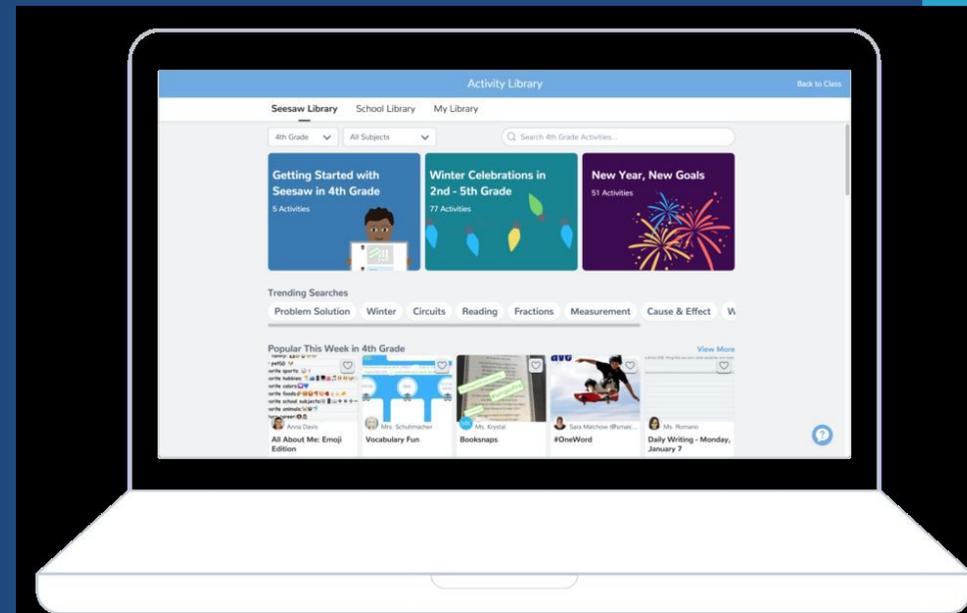

- Using Seesaw at school
- Seesaw tools and features intro
- Getting connected to the Seesaw Families app
 - Communicating with Seesaw
 - Connecting with student work

Seesaw at School

Within the first few weeks of school, teachers helped students log onto their Seesaw account on their devices.

Teachers helped students explore the many tools and features Seesaw has to engage, enhance, and deliver quality instruction. All work and activities get saved to the Student Journal.

The screenshot displays a digital journal interface. At the top left, the user is identified as "Jordan Bizeau" with a notification badge showing "59" and "Student - 1 Class". The main title is "Journal". A search bar below the header contains the name "Jordan Bizeau". The central content area features a video player showing a student's artwork, with a yellow label "Student Name" overlaid on the video. Below the video, another yellow label reads "Most recent teacher approved work". On the right side, a sidebar contains navigation icons for "Journal", "Activities" (with a "53" badge), and "Inbox". Above these icons, a green box displays "2- Cook Room" and "Student". At the top right, a "CLASS" logo is visible. A yellow label "Student Name" is positioned over the student's profile picture in the sidebar. A large yellow box is located at the bottom right of the interface.

Student Use in Seesaw Class App

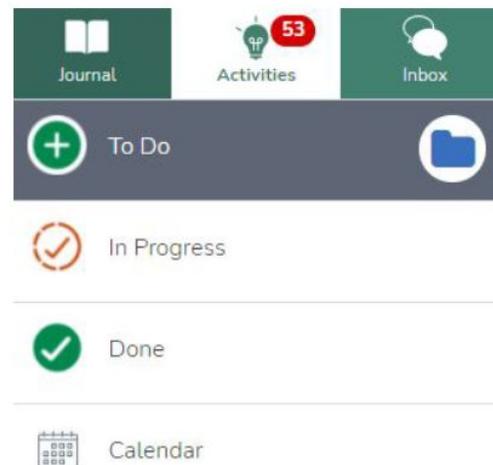

Journal Tab

The Journal Tab is where all past teacher-approved work is saved. Students may post work on their journals, complete teacher assigned activities, and teachers may post directly to student journals. Teachers can post to individual journals or share as partners, groups, or whole-class.

Activities Tab

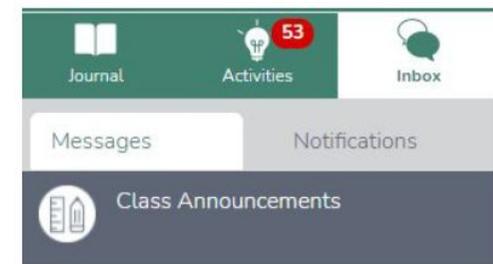

The activities tab is where students will find teacher assigned work. Teachers may also use the activities tab as a way to share links and other resources with students.

Inbox Tab

Inbox messages: whole-class announcements. Students and teachers cannot direct 1:1 message on Seesaw

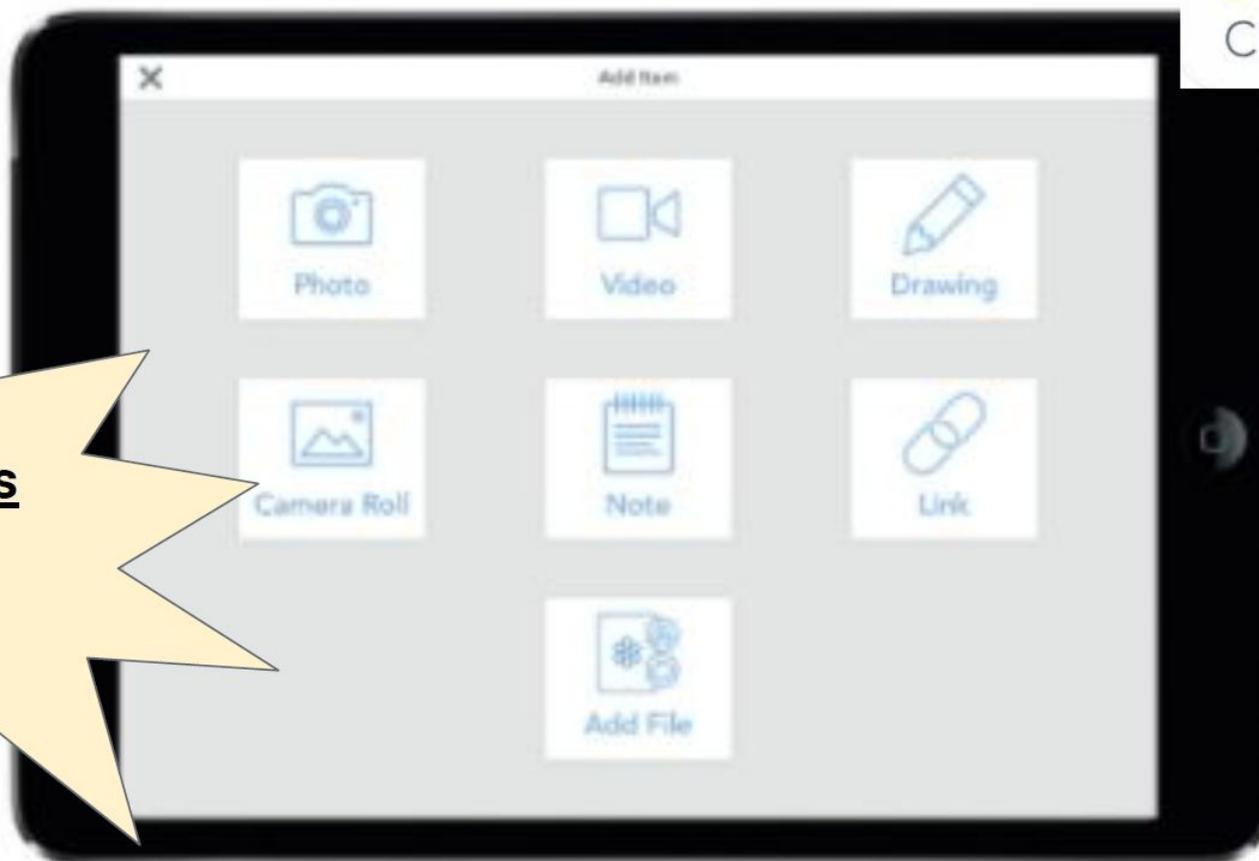

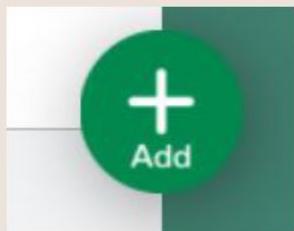

Notifications: likes and comments from teachers, peers, and family on any post connected to student.

Good morning, Parents and Guardians,

I hope this message finds you well. We had a fantastic first day, and it was heartwarming to see students and teachers connect, sharing precious moments of learning that will carry us through this school year.

While more detailed information about our program will be provided during the PYP Information Session on September 6th, I wanted to highlight two important updates that will shape the EY/PYP experience this year.

1. Monthly Assemblies:
This year, our assemblies will take place on different days during the last week of each month. Please find the attached schedule, which includes the specific dates and year levels involved. We warmly invite parents of the respective year levels to attend, celebrate with your children, and capture these memorable moments with photos.

Seesaw Families Communication: Private messages with classroom teacher

Private messages can be used for any reason to communicate with the teacher. Many teachers will make Seesaw their main form of communication with families. I recommend allowing push notifications for private messages to stay connected with your student's classroom teacher.
