Profile:

I am a conscientious and dedicated case manager. I thrive on developing and supporting the rehabilitation process to enable clients to meet challenges and maximise their potential. I am a skilled communicator who prides herself on providing all my clients and their families with a bespoke person-centred approach.

I am a former intensive care nurse and am highly experienced in managing a varied and often challenging caseload of adults and children with complex care needs. I have knowledge and experience in managing defendant pathway meetings and court appearances and achieving positive outcomes for my clients.

I specialise in the following areas: brain injury, spinal injury, catastrophic and traumatic injury, birth injuries, Cerebral Palsy, respiratory care, and ventilation. I have in-depth knowledge of managing large, directly employed care teams and hold my CQC registration.

I have 20 years of experience working in the Health and Social Care Sector. My core focus is to help individuals with complex care needs remain in the community. I am kind, compassionate, and friendly, and can quickly establish trusting relationships with my clients.

Maggie Sargent & Associates

Testimonial:

'Jenny can adapt to any case and will accept the challenge that many cases can bring. She is a valuable part of any MDT and leads with dedication and thoughtfulness for all involved.' – Kate Lewis, Senior Case Manager, SICM Ltd.

I attend regular training and formal three-monthly supervision to maintain my continual professional development. I receive regular professional development reviews and governance / due diligence check are undertaken annually. My current Mandatory Training Certificates and Safeguarding Level 3 Certificates are available on request.

I am fully compliant with the expectations of me as an expert witness and work cooperatively with the legal sector. I adhere to expected frameworks and time frames.
